Uniformed Shriners With Their Many Bands Draw Admiration From Vast Throngs on S. F. Streets

Parade Forms at Embarcadero and Escorts Imperial Potentate; Ahmes Temple Given Generous Applause

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—A great parade preceded the opening of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine today. A moving stream of bright colors flowed for nearly three hours along the caravan route to the shrine toward which nobles from all English-speaking North America have journeyed.

The occasion for this rigorous rainbow was the escorting of the Imperial Divan from the gateway of the city at the ferry through broad streets flanked by banners, bunting, emblems and other evidences of welcome and black with watching multitudes, to the Imperial Council chamber at Scottish Rite Auditorium.

Although picturesque bands and patrols from all quarters of the United States took part, California temples drew particular applause from the crowd. Islam Temple of San Francisco led the van. Al Malaikah of Los Angeles had the most novel effect in shoes, wearing footgear nearly two feet long which curved up at the ends, but Ahmes Temple of Oakland and Al Bahr of San Diego received the most cheers and hand claps.

OAKLAND SHRINERS IN DISTINCTIVE ATTIRE.

With purple costumes, belted with green sashes for the band and red and gold overseas caps perched on the heads of the patrol, the Oakland Shriners presented a unusually distinctive appearance. Their band was one of the liveliest and largest in the entire procession. Al Bahr of San Diego had a costume suggestive of California poppies and their drills in the street drew much applause.

The parade was apparently an endless procession of Oriental costumes, varied occasionally by more modern garb. The route went up Market, which was densely packed on both sides with onlookers, through the Civic Center, where a great reviewing stand had been erected and where the Imperial officers reviewed the assemblage, up Van Ness avenue to the meeting place of the Imperial Council at Scottish Rite Auditorium.

MIST FAILS TO DAMPEN ENTHUSIASM.

A fine mist softened the air and caused apprehension among many spectators, lest it develop into a rain, but in the long run it was not sufficient to dampen the enthusiasm of the many thousands.

Imperial Potentate Ernest Allen Cutts of Savannah, Ga., rode in a car painted vivid yellow and red, two of the Shrine colors, and Potentate Ira W. Coburn of Islam Temple of San Francisco had a car almost equally as gay in hue.

Probably the most unusual temple was Mohammed, of Peoria, Ill. Its band was dressed in flowing robes, with light "tarbooshes" surmounting their heads. With them they had a half-grown camel. Their shoes were long, pointed affairs which curled up at the toes. Nile Temple, of Seattle, also had a camel, but it was much smaller, about the size of a Shetland pony.

Al Kali Temple of Pueblo, Colo., also presented a striking appearance, as its members were dressed as Indians, with feathers in their hair and brandishing tomahawks.

LIVE RATTLENAKES IS CARRIED IN PARADE.

For sheer nerve the prize must be awarded to El Zaribak Temple of Phoenix, Arizona. At the head of its band marched a Hopi Indian, nearly naked, and holding in his hand a huge live rattlesnake, which twisted itself around his arms in vain efforts to free itself from the Indian's tight grasp.

Moslem Temple of Chicago undoubtedly had the largest delegation in the parade. Each section of its bands and patrols had large signs indicating whether the group was brass band, an Oriental band or an Arab patrol.

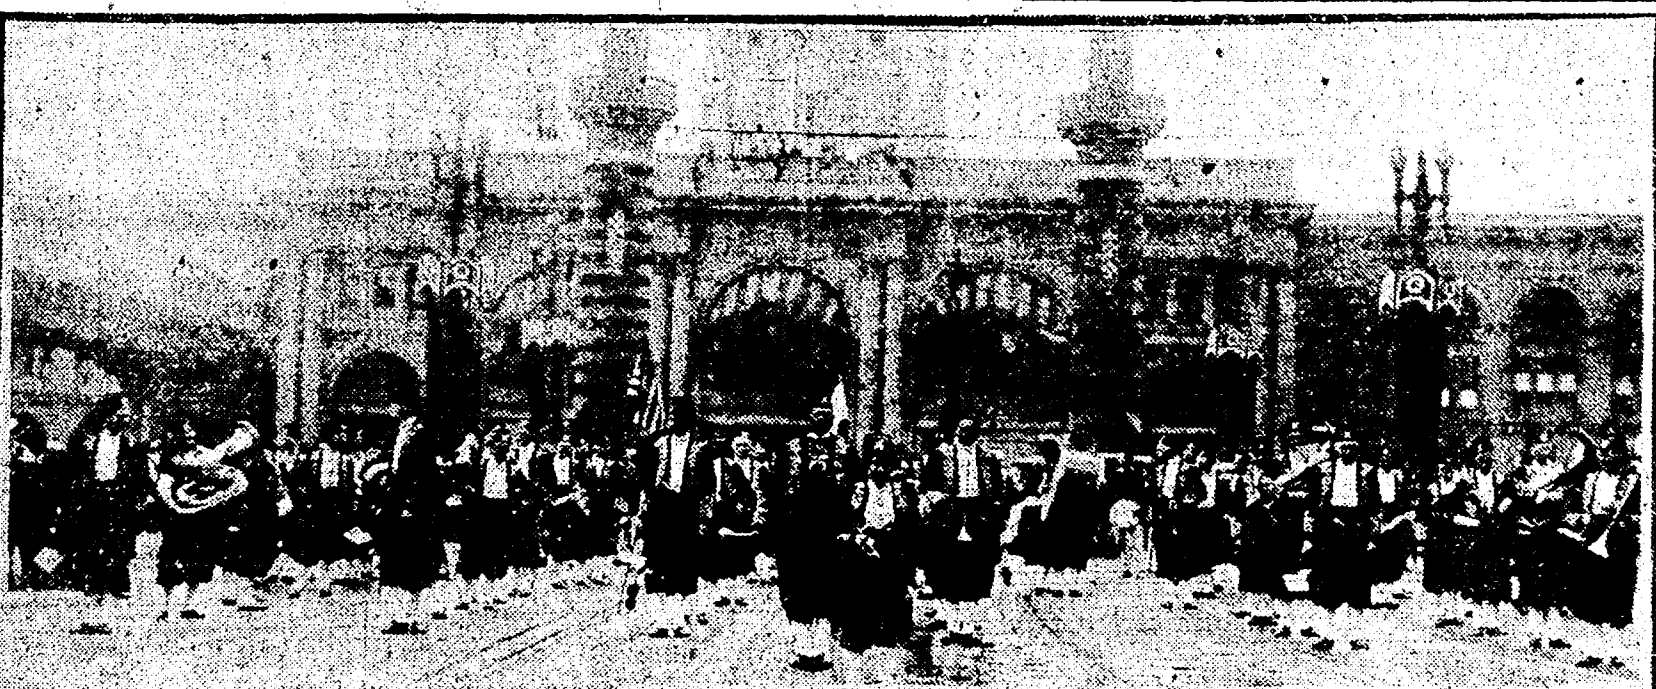

Moslem Temple of Detroit had almost as large a representation. Its patrol marched in company front with crossed scimitars.

Syria Temple of Pittsburgh, Pa., was preceded by several Hotentots dressed largely in ink skins, with kinky hair over their heads and

IMPERIAL COUNCIL OF MYSTIC SHRINE
OPENS ITS SESSION

Executives of State and City Join in Welcoming Representatives to San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Amid impressive ceremonies, the forty-eighth annual session of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine was opened this morning at Scottish Rite hall, San Francisco.

Addresses were delivered by Bishop A. W. Leonard, Governor William D. Stephens, Mayor James Rolph Jr., Samuel E. Burke, Grand Master of Free Masons in California; William Parker Filmer, Past Grand Master of Masons; Ira W. Coburn, Potentate of Islam Temple, and by Ernest A. Cutts, Imperial Potentate of the Mystic Shrine.

The ideals of the Shriners and the determination of the Mystic Shrine to maintain the open Bible, the open church and the open school, formed the keynote of the speeches.

In delivering the invocation, Bishop Leonard said, in part: "We pray God forever to keep for us the open Bible, the open church and the open school, and to give us always those American ideals which have made us the nation which we are. Under divine guidance, we will guard against those influences which aim at the destruction of our liberty."

Bishop Leonard also prayed for blessings for President Harding, Nobles of the Shrine, for Noble William D. Stephens, governor of California, and for the Imperial Potentate and his Divan.

SHRINEDOM STANDS FOR REPUBLICAN LIBERTY.

Imperial Potentate Cutts stated that every noble was in agreement with the words spoken by Bishop Leonard. He said: "Shrinedom stands for the liberty of this republic, and it stands, first of all, for the open Bible, the open church and the open school. 'On behalf of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, we thank the people of California, and of San Francisco for their splendid hospitality and welcome. We thank the Governor and the Mayor for the words they

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—Dropping a smoking revolver to wring her hands, Mrs. George McClung wept bitterly today as her neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Hogan, died on her doorstep.

Other neighbors found Mrs. McClung gazing at a religious motto on her wall and weeping. The inscription read: "Do nothing that you would not like to be doing when Jesus comes."

"Oh why did I do it? Why did I do it?" Mrs. McClung repeated distractedly, according to the persons who found her.

Neighbors said Mrs. Hogan rented two adjoining houses and that she sublet one to Mrs. McClung. They said they had always appeared to be on good terms.

THE CALL OF THE SEA.

LET no man who has felt the call of the sea make light of the impulse that led Rodney Whittle to announce to his startled family that he was going to break away from office and go, for a month of adventure on the Pacific.

"Since I was a lad," Rodney said firmly, "I have wanted to ship in one of those sailing vessels that put into the estuary, and I have never been able to do it. I have walked along the front sending my imagination on voyages that my body could not take and now that there is nothing to prevent I am going to satisfy the greatest longing of my life."

"You are going to ship as a common sailor?" Mrs. Whittle gasped when, at last, she realized that her husband was serious.

"No-o," answered Rodney, "though I might pitch in before I get back, I am going to fix it up with the skipper to take me along. I'll go on a whaler as a sort of a passenger."

That night Rodney walked the estuary as was his habit. Red lights and yellow made tall reflections in the water and the sticks of a dark cut black streaks in a sky made gray in the city's illumination. The lines of comfortable hulls, snuggled close to wharves, were blurred in the shadows. The whaling bark, John and Winthrop, he knew was there.

A SMALL launch popped up the stream, shining like lights of the bridge and he wondered where it was going. Why should little boats put out at night? With stories of fishermen arriving early in their voracious spots and of mysterious

Administration's Bill Scored in Unanimous Resolution at Cincinnati Convention; Federal System Attacked

"End Government Ownership—We Don't Care How Just So It's Soon," Says Furuseth of San Francisco

By LAWRENCE MARTIN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

OHIO NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY, CINCINNATI, O., June 13.—The American Federation of Labor convention here today unanimously adopted a resolution condemning the Harding administration's ship subsidy bill, now before Congress, as "injurious to the public interest and destructive of the nation's hopes for sea power."

The resolution, presented by James Duncan, vice-president of the Federation, asserted that the bill "is a cunningly devised scheme to enrich certain classes of ship owners at the expense of the taxpayers."

"May the Lord God look with mercy on us and take the ships out of government ownership—we don't care how, just so it is soon!" said Andrew Furuseth, San Francisco, head of the seamen's union, declaring that the subsidy bill was based on a falsehood.

Furuseth said enactment of the subsidy bill would "make politics the prime factor in the operation of the ships."

HARDING FOR

Chief Executive Tells Congress Necessity of Putting Into Law Measure Building up Merchant Marine

President Notices House Committee Chairman Unless Bill Is Passed Extra Session Will Be Called

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Harding has notified Chairman Campbell of the House rules committee that unless the ship subsidy bill is passed prior to adjournment he would feel obligated to call a special session solely for its consideration.

Writing under date of May 26 the President said: "So much is involved and such a difficult and discouraging situation will follow if Congress fails to sanction the merchant marine bill that I should feel myself obligated to call Congress immediately into extraordinary session to specially consider it if it went over through any neglect or delay beyond the present term."

The views of the President were set forth in a letter to Chairman Campbell in which he expressed the hope that the rules committee would give privileged status to the shipping bill.

HARDING HOPES FOR EARLY CONSIDERATION

In his letter to Chairman Campbell, President Harding said: "I understand that in a very short time the merchant marine bill is to be favorably reported to the House. I am writing to express the hope that your committee on rules will report whatever provision is necessary for its early and final consideration."

"I cannot convey to you how very earnestly I feel the necessity of passing this act."

"So much is involved and such a difficult, discouraging situation will follow if Congress fails to sanction the merchant marine bill that I shall feel myself obligated to call Congress into extraordinary session to specially consider it if it went over through any neglect or delay beyond the present term."

"I shall be more than glad to cooperate in any way that I can in impressing the House with the urgent necessity of the favorable consideration of the bill."

"I am writing an expression of my earnestness to you at this time because I understand it is within the province of the rules committee to report a provision under which there may be secured an early and, I hope, favorable consideration."

AMATEUR SINNERS MENACE LONDON, ASSERTS OFFICIAL

Decay of Parental Influence
Blamed for Waywardness of Young Girls.

LONDON, June 12.—"The woman who sins because she is driven to it for a living or because she prefers it to honest work is being driven out of business by the amateur," declared Sir Leonard Dunning, H. M. Inspector of Constabulary.

Sir Leonard, whose police duties have given him long experience with the seamy side of London life, is not at all satisfied with the modern woman.

"Amateur women sinners are becoming a menace, according to Sir Leonard, who declares that the amateur 'sins in order that, while preserving an outward reputation she may indulge her cravings for what would otherwise be out of her reach.'"

This is attributed to the decay of parental influence, by Sir Leonard. Supporting the views of Sir Leonard is Mrs. E. F. Smith, a well known woman magistrate in Brighton, one of England's resorts, a woman who has been regarded as a leader of her sex in Great Britain.

"There are devastating forces at work undermining women's morality," Mrs. Smith said. "Foremost of these is the housing shortage, following the war, which has placed many young girls in a decidedly unhealthy atmosphere. In Brighton, there are hundreds of families, including girls at the perilous age of from 15 to 18, crowded into one or two rooms."

"The consequences of this herding together of the sexes, at a time when a girl feels the first impulse of womanhood is obvious. Modesty is thrust aside by overwhelming circumstances and the loss of this first virtue in a woman is but a step from immorality."

"Men are still affected by the aftermath of war passions, and in consequence the temptations of unemployed girls are appalling."

"There is no doubt the amateur sinner between 16 and 20 years of age is predominant in Brighton. But is that surprising? No girl can walk along the front without being molested, accosted, or spoken to by men."

"When any girl living under the conditions I have described in offered a bright evening at a theater,

Pit Yawns After Mystery Cave-in On Kansas Farm

(By Associated Press)

WIER, Kan., June 13.—The Refinery farm, seven miles south-east of this little Cherokee county town, has been the scene of inquisitive hundreds, attracted there by a phenomenon of nature—a cave-in, seventy feet deep and ninety feet across, which was said to have suddenly occurred a few days ago. The cracked condition of the earth nearby portends another cave-in, observers say.

At the bottom of the pit there is a small pool of water, which rises and falls at intervals and persons who have experimented declare that a sinker let into this pool by means of a line failed to reach bottom.

All the earth which sunk has disappeared, as well as a tree about forty feet in height, which, it is said, stood on the ground. Local naturalists express the belief that the cave-in was caused by an underground river or lake.

C. C. ARRANGING ENTERTAINMENT

Plans for the entertainment of 250 Oakland business men are being made by the special chamber of commerce committee in charge of the reunion of those who made the recent San Joaquin Valley trip.

At a meeting held at Richard's Cafe yesterday it was decided to issue invitations not only to the 125 who were members of the excursion party into the San Joaquin Valley, but to allow each of these men to bring guests.

An elaborate program of entertainment, including talks by two well known speakers, is being arranged.

A dance, followed by a good meal, she finds the opportunity very alluring. Then, when virtue has been forfeited, the amateur easily becomes the hardened sinner.

MEMPHIS IS PUZZLED OVER LAND OWNERSHIP

Freak Shift of Water From Flood Deposits 500-Acre Tract.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 10.—The city of Memphis would like to know what use it can make of 500 acres of land which the Mississippi River, through one of the freak shifts in its channel, has just deposited at the city's "back door." The gift land, skinned from the upper reaches of the Mississippi, has been deposited in the form of an island whose nearest shore is not more than 100 yards from the city's western limits, the banks of the river. Thus far it has proved to be little more than a "white elephant."

Formation of the island, now known as Mud Island, began several years ago upstream from the city's old boat landing, which is just a few hundred yards from the very business heart of the town. The slight shift in the river's course which caused it to drop its silt apparently is a permanent change, for the island has been growing steadily until now it is big enough for half a dozen good size farms. Efforts were made at the beginning to blast away its edges so that the river would eat it out, but the attempt was fruitless.

It was expected that the record high waters of this spring, continuous through March, April and May, would move some of the obstruction, but since the river has receded the engineers have found that a big area, almost 400 yards in width and twice as long, has been added to the southernmost end.

Now several blocks below the Memphis wharves, so that a channel scarcely more than 100 yards wide is left for boats to enter any dock. This channel is kept open only through constant use of dredges, two of which have been recently put to work, with both day and night shifts.

Many suggestions have been made as to possible use of the new land by the city. The subject frequently has been discussed by the City Club and other organizations. Engineers said some time ago that the island was not stable enough to warrant its use for permanent buildings. However, since it has withstood the high waters of this spring, indications are that it is a permanent addition to the city.

Proposals have been made to convert it into a huge city park,

RUSS HOLIDAYS TOO NUMEROUS FOR U. S. RELIEF

By GEORGES POPOFF,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

MOSCOW, June 17.—Russo-American relations, if there be any relations, have been strained by the love of the Russian worker for his holiday.

The American Relief Administration hired a number of Russian workers, and everything went along merrily for a time, but the Russian workers began absenting themselves frequently, and their only excuse was that they were celebrating a national holiday. It appeared to the heads of the A. R. A. that every third day was a holiday in Russia and the crisis came on May Day. In deed it was a crisis, such a crisis that Pravda, the leading Soviet organ, used it as the text for a lengthy editorial sermon.

"Captain Tourtelot, Director of the Food Reliance Division of the American Relief Administration, ordered all his employees to come to work on the first day of May," Pravda explained, "even though there was no urgency in the work. The purpose was to ignore our international proletarian holiday."

This was the last straw. The Russian workers claimed they had been working through too many holidays, and they just refused to appear on the job on May Day.

The upshot of the whole situation was that several holiday loving Russians lost their jobs.

"Let this be exemplary proof of the fact that the Americans, the same as other capitalists in Europe, came to Russia not in order to save the starving but to improve the workers' condition," continued Pravda. "Oh, no! They weld the chains for the working class—they are preparing the noose for the workers!"

"And, therefore, workers, be on your guard! If, due to economic conditions caused by our state of ruin, you should be forced to work together with the bourgeoisie of Europe and America we must be on guard, and at their first attempt to throw the chains and noose upon us we must take very good care of them."

"Long live the proletarian holiday! We will never allow it to be abolished."

LONDON, June 13.—Great Britain does not require an oath of allegiance from the members of the provisional parliament in the Irish Free State, but it does ask for such an oath from members of the Irish Free State parliament after the adoption of the proposed Irish legislation, Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill announced in the House of Commons this afternoon.

This statement explained, the oath issue, which has been little understood by the public and has been the subject of much speculation in the press.

Next day Rodney interviewed the captain of the John and Winthrop and met a solemn lack of response.

"Better see the owner," said the skipper turning on his heel. The owner sent him back to the captain but Rodney was not to be discouraged.

"Well," said the captain, finally, "if you are going along with me you'd better take a look over the ship. Only don't," he added impressively, "call it a boat."

Below decks and aft the captain led Rodney, who strained his eyes to see through the gloom. "Here is where the crew's quarters are," the captain announced, pausing to let the scene carry its own emphasis. "Those charred timbers are a relic of a fire up North." The skipper puffed on a pipe.

"We were stuck in an ice field off Cape Smith, and the men heard from a native that there had been a cold strike. All they had to do, they kidded themselves, was to go ashore and pick it up. I didn't dare let them leave the ship."

Again the skipper puffed meditatively while Rodney looked wide-eyed at the fantastic accommodations.

"One day they set fire to the ship, planning to make their way across the ice to the Cape, but they didn't get far. I had to take a rifle and chase them all below decks where it was a case of put out the fire or burn. Two or three of 'em suffocated. Come on, and look at my cabin."

The cabin, while small, was the only clean-painted place Rodney had seen on the ship. What attracted him most, though, was the array of rifles and revolvers hung on the walls. "I keep 'em loaded, for emergencies," the skipper explained. "Everybody works on a whaler."

Rodney walked several blocks along the front before he struck off for a car line. He saw the revenue cutter, Bear, another ice-battler, resting in the floating docks of a shipyard and his thoughts returned to the fo'castle of the John and Winthrop.

"I guess I'm too old anyway," he said to himself, besides, "I would miss my golf."

PGISON, PEPPER IN BIBLES KILL TROPIC WORMS

NEW YORK, June 13.—Twelve hundred perfumed, peppered and poisoned Bibles have been shipped to Ocean Island in the Gilbert Group by the American Bible Society, it was announced by that organization yesterday.

The volumes, which are in the Gilbertese language, were routed by Sidney, Australia, a distance of 15,000 miles. They were especially bound, the poisoned glue being used to kill the hookworms of the tropic island, which are very destructive.

FALLS TO DEATH.
MARYSVILLE, June 13.—Fred Williams, 24, a sheet metal worker of San Diego, was killed here yesterday when he fell 45 feet from a tank tower belonging to the Virden Tacking company.

Edah McGee-Gibson

Virginia Fairfax, daughter of the first families of Virginia, rebels against the traditional rule of her grandfather, and lures by flattery to become a motion picture actress. Virginia found her a very important place in the Stratton picture. Kitty Dalton, a friend, warned Virginia against falling in love with Stratton. Kitty confesses her love for John Storm, the minister. She rails at the attitude of the world, which condemns her and condones Theodore Stratton for identical deeds. Maud Benson quarrels furiously with Theodore Stratton. She charges him with being in love with Virginia. Kitty Dalton tells of her actress-mother's tragic death on the stage and of her meeting Theodore. Following her mother's death Kitty doubled with Thorndyke in the act. They were successful. Craved for drink, Thorndyke established a man in a saloon brawl. He fled to Kitty, demanding money. She refused. He attacked her, falling upon his own knife, which she had snatched up from a table. Kitty is worried about Julian Thorndyke and decided to confide in John Storm.

SUNDAY WITH JOHN STORM.
As Kitty and I motored to John Storm's church in the early morning we wound through a country of surpassing beauty.

The purple hills and snow-capped mountain tops were gold-tinged here and there by the on-ward-marching orb of day which broke through the mist and dispersed it as softly and sweetly as the bridegroom lifts the veil from the face of his bride. The whole earth smiled as though it had been gently kissed.

The air that morning was so like April in Virginia that it made me think of my homeland in the springtime. I drew long deep breaths of it and unconsciously I turned to Kitty. We smiled into each other's faces.

"Isn't it lovely?" she whispered. "and it isn't so bad, is it Virgie—just living."

"It is glorious, Kitty. I wonder if you will believe me when I tell you that the annoyances, the sorrows and even the hurts help to make it so."

"Oh, I know! I know, Virgie! And to realize this early is the greatest blessing that can come to a young woman—especially one who has her own way to make in the world."

We nestled more closely together in the wide tonneau. Kitty's arms closed round my waist as she cuddled up close to me, while through the morning light we two girls engrossed, each in her own thoughts, rode along the beautiful highway. There was a scent of orange blossoms in the air. I expect this fragrance made us both think of love and marriage.

Again and again we passed the mission bells standing stark along the road bearing their old Spanish legend, "El Camino Real—the King's Highway."

"I wonder," mused Kitty aloud—and it almost seemed that there was a transference of thought from my brain to hers, "I wonder," she repeated, "if sometimes a girl—as young as you or I—might have passed along this way, her soft moccasined footfalls making no sound? I wonder if she was afraid of what she might come upon. Just as I am this morning? And I wonder if, when she reached out and pulled the leather thong and the chimes pealed forth their music, some other bell in the distance rang back a cheering, helpful sympathetic echo, just as I expect John Storm to answer my call for help this morning?"

"Then you are going to tell him, Kitty?"

"I don't know, Virgie. I don't know. But I do know that just to sit down there in the church pew and look up into John's face—just to listen to his voice, will help me. Virgie, do you think that it is necessary for me to try and make something of Julian Thorndyke? Will John Storm tell me that I am to blame for the wrecking of his life and that, in compensation, I must help him rebuild it?"

"What are you thinking about, Kitty?" Started with surprise at such a question I almost shook her. "Surely you are not thinking of trying to rescue someone who will only pull you down into the whirlpool of despair and death."

"But he was good to me that night—the night my mother died—and for many weeks afterward," responded this strange, many-sided girl.

"Yes, Kitty, he was, until he got power. Then he showed you his real self."

"That is true, Virgie, as true as I am sitting here with you. The scars that he made upon my arm and shoulders with his ruthless hands have been gone these many years, but the scars he put upon my heart will be there always. But let's don't talk of it any more. See! There is a robin! Look at him pulling that angle-worm up from the ground. He surely will tumble over upon his back." Kitty laughed gleefully, as though she had not a trouble in the world. I did not see the robin which we evidently passed almost before she spoke, but her thinking laughter was contagious and I joined her in it.

At that moment the cross at the crest of Mount Rubidoux burst into view and we both drew a deep, ecstatic breath.

"It's a symbol, Virgie! John Storm is like that—staunch and straight and true with arms stretched out as though saying: 'Come unto me all ye that are weary-laden and I will give you rest.'"

The church bells pealed and the echoes rolled and reverberated from the mountain sides.

The chauffeur slowed down as we entered the palm-lined streets. "Shall I take you to the rectory, Miss?" he asked.

"No, we will go to the church," Kitty answered.

Slowly we passed groups of people wearing their shining Sunday faces as well as their Sunday clothes. I looked at Kitty and wondered if I, too, had absorbed some of the look of righteousness that I saw upon her face. And then the hint of contrast whispered in my ear: "What will the people in the congregation think, if they recognize Kitty and realize that two of these wicked moving picture people are to spend the holy sabbath day with their dear pastor?"

Trial Is Delayed.

Mother Pays $5000 To Take Girl Away

Permission to take her child on a trip to Australia and the Orient was granted yesterday to Mrs. Zora Vredergast Cook, Eastbay society matron, by Superior Judge Eugene

McDaniel. Mrs. Cook has been divorced several years from W. Lyle Cook, provision having been made in the divorce that the father could visit the child. When Mrs. Cook made her first request to be allowed to take the child out of the United States Judge McDaniel professed himself unable to extend this permission, seeing that the father had refused to let his child leave the country. He suggested a compromise. By the court's ruling this morning Mrs. Cook deposits a bond for $5000 and will return the child to America by October 1.

Polish Children Must Go to School
WARSAW, June 13.—The introduction of general compulsory education throughout Poland will be completed by the end of 1923, according to the program of the Ministry of Education. The new measure obliges every child of seven years to enter and attend school for seven years, and already is in operation, but shortage of teachers and school buildings makes its general application slow. Warsaw alone must find school premises for 40,000 extra children to put the law into full effect. Eleven new school buildings now are being erected in this city.

YOUNG BOY RUINS HIS GOOD CLOTHES

"John, I am simply discouraged about Robert. He simply ruined that blue suit of his, and you know it isn't very old. He got into some tar or something and he even tore it in several places when he was fooling about, when those men were repairing the roof down at your store. I don't see why you didn't watch him!"

"Watch him! Holy smoke, Eleanor! A 12-year-old boy will get into so many things in half a day that I would be so tired with the mere job of watching him that I would need a vacation. It is a fright, though, the way that boy ruins his clothes."

"Well, we will have to do something to him. It is pure carelessness. We must figure up some way to interest him in keeping his clothes looking well."

"Say, Eleanor, I've got it! Why not fix up a scheme where he buys his own clothes? I wanted him to get the habit of saving, and he's pretty good about putting all the money he earns in the bank. But this is another important lesson for him to learn. I'll have a talk with him and suggest that he begin buying his own clothes. When he learns just how much time he has to spend to earn enough for a suit it will be a valuable lesson to him."

"That's a wonderful idea, John. He can get his clothes at Cherry's, 523 13th street, on credit. If he has to go there and make a payment every so often, he will learn the value of his money."

Cherry's store for women is at 515 13th street.—Advertisement.

SEN. ROBINSON RAP'S JAPANESE INFLUX POLICY

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., June 13.—The United States should frankly tell Japan that this country will never tolerate the Japanese position touching immigration, land ownership and race equality," Senator Joseph T. Robinson, a Democratic leader in the Senate, declared in a speech here today at the centennial celebration of the University of Arkansas.

"Frankness in defining the American position, even if it annoys Japan, will avoid the breach certain to occur if the United States misleads Japan to believe her position in these matters is approved," the senator said, in an address full of sharp attacks on Japan.

"At no time during the past ten years has complete accord subsisted between the United States and Japan," he continued. "There have been threats and counter threats, with secret preparations for possible conflict."

Danville defeated Crockett at Crockett and took second place. For the remainder of the season the legion teams will play independent ball.

The boys will be served ice cream and cookies at the TRIBUNE building by young ladies of the Circulation Department, who will also attend the theater party with the boys.

ONE PATROLMAN DISMISSED, NINE ADDED TO FORCE

C. L. Loebbing, Accused of Insulting Three Women,
Loses Police Job.

Accused of insulting three women in East Oakland, Patrolman C. L. Loebbing of the Eastern Police station was ordered dismissed last night by Chief of Police James P. Drew, and, at the same time, nine new probationary patrolmen were added to the force.

Loebbing was formally accused of conduct unbecoming an officer, and conduct subversive of good order and discipline. He was appointed as a temporary police officer September 26, 1921, and was attached to the "morals squad," from which he was later relieved at his own request. According to Drew, a complaint by the women caused the dismissal of Loebbing. The patrolmen appointed today were: George A. Taylor, S. A. McHugh, W. P. Ramsey, Irving V. Grimes, Gordon Banford, Harvey McKee, P. J. Favero and O. P. Baker.

LASHED BY GALE AIRMEN DROPS 24,206 FEET

Captain Stevens of McCook
Field Makes Parachute
Altitude Record.

DAYTON, O., June 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Lashed and whipped about by a 120-mile gale more than four and a half miles above earth, on the verge of suffocation, caused by loss of his oxygen tank, and compelled to cling to ropes and straps attached to a parachute for fear that a whirling cross current might weaken and cause them to break, Captain Stevens of McCook Field, who yesterday broke the world's parachute jump record when he descended 24,206 feet.

The fact that it was Captain Stevens' first "drop" tends to make his feat one of the most remarkable in the history of aviation. He suffered no ill effects from his hazardous trip.

The plane in which Captain Stevens ascended, a twin motored Martin bomber, piloted by Lieutenant Leigh Wade, on their altitude record for this particular type of ship, carrying three passengers when it attained the ceiling of 24,206 feet. Sergeant Roy Langham was the third member of the party.

MAKES HIGH DROP.

Captain Stevens was reluctant today to discuss details of his experience.

"For a long time I have wanted to make a parachute drop," he said, "primarily to obtain first-hand information as to the sensations one feels. I am highly gratified to think I was able to bring another record to McCook Field."

When the plane reached the ceiling I made ready to jump. As near as I could judge we were over Springfield, Ohio. Bidding my pals goodbye, I jumped.

The opening of the parachute caused the oxygen tank to become loose from its fastenings on the front of my clothing. Grasping it with both hands I endeavored to retain it.

The wind, which was traveling at a speed of 120 miles per hour, whipped the parachute around like a jack straw. I was forced to use both hands on the ropes and straps which held me to the chute, in an effort to check oscillation, which threatened to weaken the supports. It was then that I lost the tank. I think it fell some place near Springfield.

NEARLY SUFFOCATED.

"It was an experience I shall never forget. Before settling down to a lower altitude I thought my time had come as I was nearly suffocated due to the rareness of the atmosphere. Dipping out of the gale into the lower atmosphere below, I quickly recovered, however."

I landed at Jamestown approximately 25 miles from where I left the plane. My descent took just 30 minutes.

"Just before taking off at McCook field, an orderly appeared carrying a lunch kit containing sandwiches and coffee in vacuum bottles. We ate the lunch 24,000 feet in the air and we all enjoyed it thoroughly. The temperature at the ceiling was zero."

Two hours and five minutes was required by Lieutenant Wade to pilot the bomber to her record-breaking altitude.

Six Churches to Aid
McPherson Meetings

Support of six Oakland churches in the Alameda Temple McPherson campaign, was promised by their respective pastors at a meeting of the campaign committee last night in Jenny Lind hall, Twenty-second street and Telegraph avenue. The ministers promised their support even to the extent of closing their own churches.

Several hundred persons attended last night's meeting. Claude Stultsman, Mrs. McPherson's campaign manager, is arranging the various sub-committees, which will be composed of men from Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Hayward, in order that everything will be in readiness on July 15, when the revivals open.

BLACK & WHITE
SPRINTY BLEACH

SOAP BILL IS 20 CENTS PER CAPITA A YEAR

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 12.—(By International News Service.)—Although Americans have rather prided themselves that soap is something of a national institution, the fact is, according to Bert Butterworth of Los Angeles, that Americans economize on soap. The total per capita per annum expenditure for soap in the United States is 20 cents.

Butterworth made his revelation in an address before the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in convention here.

As for cosmetics, Butterworth declared the charge that the "flapper" and the "vamp" spend all their change for beautifiers is slanderous.

The per capita expenditure in the United States, he said, for lipsticks, rouge, face cream, eyebrow pencils, henna, paint, powder and other cosmetic concoctions is just 50 cents per annum.

Los Angeles has higher death rate from motor vehicle accidents than any other Western city.

MUST COOPERATE WITH BOLSHEVIKI, BRITISH CONTEND

London, in Reply to France,
Outlines Policy for Parley
At The Hague.

PARIS, June 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The British reply to Premier Poincaré's memorandum setting forth the French attitude agrees that The Hague conference should be a consultation of expert and should avoid political and diplomatic questions. Great Britain disavows, however, regarding Poincaré's demand that the soviet government withdraw its memorandum of May 11, holding that it is superseded by the soviet's later declarations, and that request for withdrawals should have been made before the Russians were invited to The Hague.

The private interests that must be counted on to open credits to the soviet, says the reply, will need guarantees, and the governments can aid them to secure these guarantees. There is no question of "capitulation" by europe, the note continues. "For the statesmen taking part in the attempt to restore Russia are quite capable of protecting their own interests."

The reply delivered to the foreign office today strongly emphasizes the necessity of co-operation with the Russian delegates. It disapproves the method proposed

Liggett Proposes Sergeant in S. F. For Hall of Fame

SACRAMENTO, June 13.—Recommendation that Sergeant Philip C. Katz, of San Francisco, former member of Company C, 363rd Infantry, be named as California's representative to serve in the "Living Hall of Fame" at the second annual convention of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, was made to Governor William D. Stephens yesterday by a committee headed by Major General H. Liggett.

According to the communication received by the governor, Katz was decorated with the medal of honor for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy near Bellicourt, France, September 26, 1918." After his company had withdrawn for a distance of 200 yards, it was stated Sergeant Katz learned that one of his comrades had been left wounded in an exposed position at the point from which the withdrawal had taken place. Voluntarily crossing an area swept by heavy machine gun fire, he advanced to where the wounded soldier lay and carried him to a place of safety.

Katz is adjutant at Post No. 1 of the American Legion in San Francisco.

By the French government, not only because, in its opinion, this method is impractical but also because the government regards it as inconsistent with a principle, to which the French government attaches the greatest importance—avoidance of politics.

DOORMAN JAILED ON THEFT CHARGE

John Quinn, doorman at the Hotel Oakland, arrested last night in Berkeley while driving a stolen automobile, is held in the city prison here today for further investigation.

The machine, which belonged to Bernice Stevens, Lesoline of 422 Westley avenue, was taken from the driveway in front of the Hotel Oakland about 11 o'clock last night. It was reported as stolen to the department. The license number was given to the various police departments in the bay district. When Quinn drove through Berkeley he was arrested.

With him in the machine at the time of his arrest was Miss Elsie Friedman of 602 Jones street. The couple were brought to this city by Police Inspectors William Smith and Jules Sternitsky. After the inspectors questioned the girl she was taken to her home. They say that she did not know that the machine was stolen.

Miss Ethel Oliver Weds At Home

Before a setting of bride gladiolas and asparagus fern the marriage of Miss Ethel Oliver and Harry A. Krammer of San Francisco was solemnized June 3 at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Oliver of Vernon street. The couple have just returned from a motor trip north and will make their home across the bay. The wedding was a quiet affair witnessed by the immediate family. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Moor Flint, who, with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Oliver, Miss Dorothy Oliver and Theodore Gelesky, made up the receiving party at the reception that followed. A buffet supper was served.

The bride wore a gown of champagne Canton crepe with hat to match, and carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her attendant, Miss Elizabeth Heintz, was in periwinkle blue canton crepe and carried a shower bouquet of pink bridesmaid roses. Miss Gladys Oliver, sister of the bride, was in pale green over white organdy and carried sweet peas. Professor Lawrence de Grassi served as best man. Clarence Oliver was soloist. The ritual was read by Rev. Francis J. Van Horn of the Congregational church in this city.

The wedding plans are postponed indefinitely. Captain Abernethy is a member of an old Southern family.

Cards are out for a bridge tea which Miss Regina Marie Caire, graduate of the Holy Names College, will give at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frederick Caire, Saturday for a score of friends. Next week Miss Caire, accompanied by her mother and sisters, the Misses Hsiene Delphine and Vivienne Caire, will motor south to their summer home on Santa Cruz Island.

One of the prettiest affairs given for Mrs. Oliver Edwin Jeegelen, who is soon leaving San Francisco to make her home permanently in Los Angeles, was the elaborate tea given by Mrs. Juhl Frederick Gerds and Miss Grace Magee Wednesday in the Palm Court of the Palace. Places were set for twenty guests.

Nesbitt Praises Poetry of Scott

Sir Walter Scott's "stunt" was not only fine poetry but first-class publicity for Scotland, according to Dr. Norman Nesbitt, head of the Piedmont Hills School for Boys, who yesterday addressed the members of the Oakland Kiwanis Club at their weekly luncheon at the Hotel Oakland.

Dr. Nesbitt illustrated his lecture on "The Poetry and Romance of Scotland" with special lantern slides colored by himself.

"Scott's graphic pictures, in 'The Lady of the Lake,' of the lochs and glens and the many other romantic features of his native land, acquainted the world with a Scotland they had never known," the speaker said. "The result was that the post-chaise traffic over the border into Scotland immediately trebled and then quadrupled."

"Progressive polygamy" was the phrase by which Dr. Nesbitt characterized the modern tendency in matrimony, as distinguished from the system in vogue in the time of Scott's heroine, Ellen, daughter of the outlaw Douglas.

Air Service Officer Holds Many Titles

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The most titled officer in the United States Army, according to the War Department, is the officer in charge of the Trade Test Department of the Chanute Field, Illinois Air Service Mechanics School.

An army official declared if this officer had a tin badge pinned on him for every title he has the admiring public would require a powerful microscope to discover his noble physiognomy beneath the mass of metal.

A few of the titles which burden him with their weight are: Officer in charge of trade test, officer, information officer, athletic officer, publicity officer, morale officer, member of G. C. M., secretary of officers' club, engineer officer and transportation officer of the Fifteenth Observation Squadron.

With all his titles he is the lowest ranking member of the school's staff.

RHEUMATISM Leaves You Forever

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenburh's sure cures of rheumatism does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenburh, who for many years suffered from rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenburh decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Ask any first-class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Blood Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore it not only produces the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment at once. It is a safe and sure remedy and will begin to work at once. Your druggist can supply you.—Advertisement.

Hats for Earliest Fall

The June demand for "something new" has brought these advance-of-the-season hats, made of crisp taffetas and sleek satins, in tones that have turned to the sobereties of navy, black and striking brown. The naive simplicity of the trimmings, and the deft flattery in the shapes suggest a hint of French designing. The price, for the June Record Sale, is quite matchless.

ADEQUATE ARMY INSURES NATION, DECLARES WEEKS

Secretary Says Chaos Would Result Without Military Establishment.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 13.—(By Associated Press.)—The United States does not need an army were met by Secretary Weeks of the war department in an address at the graduation exercises of the United States Military Academy today with the statement that "the civilization of the world rests on no surer foundation than did the civilization

"DEAD BEATS" ON RUN, STATE CREDIT CHIEFS

CHICAGO, Ill., June 13.—(By Associated Press.)—The "dead beats," are rapidly disappearing, according to delegates of the Retail Credit Men's National Association in tenth annual convention here.

"The female of the 'dead beat' species used to be more deadly than the male," Mrs. Verne Zimmerman, audit manager of a South Bend, Ind., dry goods store, said. "The increasing number of women in business, education in the nation-wide value of prompt payment and a credit rating are eliminating the thoughtless woman buyers."

In his annual report, President E. W. Nelson, of Lincoln, Neb., recommended enlargement of the had check and prosecution service, and establishment of a national department for recording derogatory information in "skippers," persons who make a practice of leaving "without settling their accounts."

JUNIORS ARE VICTORS.
PLEASANTON, June 13.—Heavy stickwork won the game between the Pleasanton Juniors and the Dublin Tigers for the local team, the score being 11 to 5. "Frenchie" Lane pitched fast ball, never being in a pinch. Governor was on the receiving end for Pleasanton. Simoni and Banks were the battery for Dublin.

of Boston" at the time of the police strike nearly three years ago. "If it were not for the restraining force of the military establishment of the nation of the world," he declared, "an indescribable state of chaos would result and civilization would be rapidly exterminated through self-destruction."

To say that the United States does not need an army, he added, is just as reasonable as to say that "Boston, Chicago, and our other large cities do not need a police force."

The question of the size of the army, he declared, would always be a matter of controversy, especially as after a great war there is "an alarming tendency for the overburdened tax-payer to forget the lessons of the past and cancel his insurance, trusting to luck for at least a few years without the national protection which those more familiar with military matters and requirements deem necessary."

Addressing his remarks particularly to the graduating class, the secretary declared that "you cannot be an officer and a gentleman unless you are just, human and thoroughly trained; unless you have character, a high sense of honor and an unselfish devotion to duty. Be an example as such to every one. Do not countenance low and immoral things."

MEXICO BANDITS BEATEN IN TRAIN ROBBERY ATTACK

Three Gunmen Killed, Two Wounded in Attempt to Loot Silver Shipment.

NOGALES ARIZ., June 13.—(By International News Service.)—Twenty-five Mexican bandits who attempted to hold up and rob a Southern Pacific railroad train near Rosario station, sixty miles south of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, yesterday, were driven off, according to reports reaching here today. Three bandits were killed and two wounded when General Rodriguez and members of his staff, aboard the train, opened fire upon them, the report said. According to word received here, the bandits had received word that forty bars of silver bullion had been placed aboard the train by an American mining company at Rosario. The shipment is said to have been valued at $35,000.

Two hundred soldiers under command of General Angel Flores, chief of military operations in northern Mexico, are pursuing the robbers.

DURANT GETS NILES MAN.
NILES, June 13.—Word of the appointment of Fred Heiduska, former Niles resident, to the position of chief electrician at the new Durant factory in Oakland, was received here by relatives and friends today. Heiduska will begin his duties when the assembling plant opens for operations shortly.

ASKS MORE WATER.
MERCED, June 13.—The Merced irrigation district has applied to the department of public works for an additional 1000 cubic feet of water per second to insure plenty of water for the supply to be used in the power plant at Exchequer dam. The board also asks in the same application for 350,000 acre feet of water yearly, which may be sold for commercial purposes.

suffered slight hurts. The automobile Herbst was driving plunged through a fence after colliding with the train, and was wrecked.

When the automobile in which she was riding with her son, Bruce Merman of Stockton, his wife and child, struck a gravel truck at Estudillo avenue and Foothill boulevard and was hurled against a tree, Mrs. Schaeffer was badly injured. The other occupants of the car were uninjured, despite the fact that the machine was completely wrecked. The party was driving from Stockton to Oakland, and at San Leandro struck the truck, which was driven by Louis Costello, a rock hauling contractor of San Leandro.

Women's View of Advertising Told

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 13.—(By Associated Press.)—Woman like "what may be termed atmosphere" in advertising. Mrs. Anna D. Olsen of Cloquet, Minn., candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator from Minnesota, told the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World today.

She said that the modern woman demands not only utility, but also "beauty and comfort in order to have a home atmosphere equal to that of kings and queens a few centuries ago."

"First, we want courtesy. Secondly, we want an appeal to our intelligence and not to our prejudices. Thirdly, we want to get a full and honest value for the price paid."

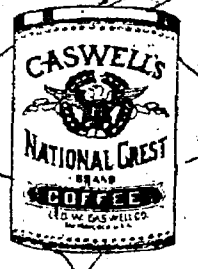

"Not all the advertising is in print. Courtesy, promptness of service, forethought of personal comfort, such as drinking fountains and rest rooms, have their value. The simple fact of placing a product before the eyes of people on paper will undoubtedly make sales, however."

CROP ACREAGE GROWTH IS SEEN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—According to Edward Chambers, of Chicago, vice-president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, who arrived here yesterday on a business trip, California leads the United States in the increase of cultivated acres for the five-year period ending 1922. Chambers estimates that during this period 500,000 acres, hitherto uncultivated, will have been planted to fruit and vines, and another 500,000 new acreage to vegetables and other crops.

Mrs. Hattie McNear's Funeral Is Held

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs. Hattie S. McNear, mother of E. B. McNear of San Rafael and Dr. J. A. McNear of Petaluma, from a private chapel in this city. Mrs. McNear died early yesterday morning. She was born in New York and was 75 years old. Mrs. McNear was the step-mother of George P. McNear of Petaluma. A sister, Mrs. Mattie Gould, survives.

Grasshopper Glacier New Sight in North

WASHINGTON, June 13.—"Very much unheard of before," one of the glacier experts of the Geological Survey said skeptically when recently shown reports and photographs of the Grasshopper glacier which lies just outside of the northeast corner of the Yellowstone National park.

However, the glacier is there for any one to see, officials of the national park service said today. Impounded in its ice there are thousands of grasshoppers of an extinct species, which must have been flying over the mountains in living clouds when they were caught in snowstorms and killed, later to be preserved for countless years in solid ice.

The glacier which lies in great clumps at the head of Rosebud river is comparable to any of the big glaciers of the Rockies, the park service asserted. It is a safe glacier, having few crevasses. The view from the glacier is described as exceptionally fine, due to the towering sawtooth mountains about it, and the yawning canyons of the Rosebud below.

ENGINEERS END LOCKOUT.

LONDON, June 13 (By the Associated Press).—By 76,378 votes against 39,423, the Amalgamated Engineering Union has voted for acceptance of the employers' proposals for the settlement of the lockout in the engineering industry.

The lockout originally affected some three quarters of a million workers and has been in effect for fourteen weeks.

NATIONAL JUNIOR C. OF C. TO MEET

INDIANAPOLIS, June 13.—Men of national prominence in the business world will address the business sessions of the third annual convention of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is to be held in Indianapolis, June 14 to 17.

One thousand representatives of the various chambers of commerce are expected to attend the convention. They will represent forty junior chambers.

Clarence H. Howard, of St. Louis, is scheduled to address the opening business session on June 15. Howard, who is said to be the originator of the junior chamber idea, will speak on the subject, "Mission of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce."

George O. Wilson, Dallas, Tex., national president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; the Rev. Arthur Folsom of Fort Wayne, Ind.; George M. Verity, Middletown, O.; Elliott H. Goodwin, resident vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States; Col. Alvin M. Owsley, director of the National American Commission of the American Legion, and Col. Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, are other speakers scheduled to address the meeting.

Prince Regent of Japan Is Modern

HAKONE, Japan, May 20.—(By Mail).—Many departures from the usual activities of the imperial family are being made by the prince regent, but none more noticeable than his interest in sport. During his visit to Europe he was attracted by golf and on his return here started taking lessons from members of the different golf clubs which are increasing in Japan. He put in some practice for his game with the Prince of Wales and while it was noticed he had a good style, his efficiency in the game was not marked, due largely to nervousness caused by the clicking of cameras as he came to the tee to drive off. After his match with the English prince the prince regent came to Hakone and practiced daily on the links of the hotel, which was also contrary to precedent. Another surprise for the Japanese people was that the prince regent in going to and returning from the course, instead of saluting formally, took off his golf cap and nodded in the most informal manner.

100,000 Poles Came to U. S. Last Year

WARSAW, June 13.—One hundred thousand emigrants left Poland for the United States and Canada during 1921, according to figures published here. During the same time 40,000 re-emigrants came into Poland, bringing with them money estimated at 500,000, 000,000 marks, or about $300,000.

ENGLISH ARREST GHANDI'S EDITOR

LUCKNOW, British India, June 13.—(By the Associated Press).—Qureshi, who succeeded Mohandas Khandi as editor of Young India, has been arrested on a charge of publishing seditious articles. The central kaliphat committee has adopted a resolution declaring civil disobedience unavoidable "in view of the hostile attitude of the British cabinet towards the kaliphat question and the continuous repressive policy of the government in India." The committee, however, endorses the resolution of the recent all-India congress postponing aggressive measures until August 15.

Press Association Will Meet June 25

PLEASANTON, June 13.—A meeting for the Southern Alameda County Press Association will be held in Livermore June 25, according to an announcement made today by W. T. Davis, local publisher and president of the association. The association was recently revived after several years of inactivity at a meeting held in Niles, where the editors were guests of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

Revolution Leader Of Germany Is Dead

BERLIN, June 13.—(By the Associated Press).—Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, leader of the Kappist revolution in Berlin in 1920, died in Leipzig today. Death followed an operation some time ago in which the left eye and a part of Kapp's skull were removed. Kapp was born in New York in 1854. He remained there until 17 years old, attending school, when his father returned to Germany with him.

PLEASANTON POST WILL MEET

PLEASANTON, June 13.—Decision whether or not Pleasanton Post, American Legion, will undertake the task of planting trees along the highways leading to local cemeteries as tribute to the soldier dead of the Amador valley will be reached at a meeting of the post to be held here Wednesday night. The matter will be brought before the veterans following the regular business session. It is believed, through an unofficial canvass of the post membership, that the project will be adopted without a dissenting vote, according to Arthur Hansen, commander of the local post.

The tree planting project is the first of a series of community improvement plans to be on the program of Pleasanton Post.

TRAFFIC COPS CLEAR THE WAY FOR SHRINERS

NILES, June 13.—Alameda county's "Three L's" foes of traffic law offenders, cleared the way for the Shriners' caravan, Sunday, from the San Joaquin county line to the Oakland city limits.

The "Three L's" are Deputy Sheriff Leon Solon, traffic patrol for Washington township; Louis Eike, patrol of the San Leandro, Hayward and Mt. Eden district; and Leslie Wright of the Livermore section. By a coincidence the first names of each of the traffic officers of the county patrol begin with the initial "L."

Special vigilance is being exercised by the three officers this week, the huge increase in traffic over the county highways, due to the Shriners' convention, making accidents more probable, they say.

BIG BARLEY CROP.

WOODLAND, June 13.—Frank Woodland, capitalist and land owner of Woodland, has returned from a survey of the Sacramento valley with the report that barley is heavy this year in many sections and will run throughout the West. Side in particular, from 20 to 35 sacks to the acre.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HOLD RALLY

Plan for Education to Stop Paganizing of America Is On Program.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 13.—A plan for universal public religious education, as "the only way to stop the paganizing of America," will be presented to the International Sunday School convention, which meets here June 21 to 27.

Civilization without Christianity is described by delegates to the convention as "paganism," and results from education without religious instruction, in the opinion of the sponsors of the plan. They assert their belief that foreign elements in the population have taken advantage of the decay of home religious institutions in America, and that the best Americanization is to be found in religious education.

Christianity as "the fountain head of social progress" rather than a collection of dogmas is the ideal seen by the convention leaders. They urge Christian leadership in popular music and restoration of the drama as a religious art.

Three days of the convention's session are to be devoted to consideration of the report of the committee on religious education. Among the signatories of the report expected to be present are Prof. Walter S. Atherton, director of the school of religious education of Boston university; Prof. Luther A. Tor in chief of the Baptist board of publication (North); Dr. Wade Crawford, associate editor of Sunday school publications; Methodist Episcopal church; Dr. John W. Shaddock, superintendent of teacher training of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

The last day of the convention William Jennings Bryan, who was invited to speak to the convention twice, the first invitation being recalled and a second one issued later upon insistence by his friends, will speak and his address is expected to be the feature of the day.

Russian Soviet Ready to Offer Big Concessions

By S. D. WEYER, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

THE HAGUE, June 13.—The Russian Soviet government representatives in the economic conference which opens here Thursday will be prepared to offer concessions for commercial exploitations worth approximately a billion dollars, provided conditions are satisfactory to the Moscow government, it was learned today from sources believed to be reliable.

These concessions deal with minerals, railway construction, agricultural development and timber. The vanguard of the economic effort, which will participate in the conference on Russian reconstruction has arrived here.

This will be more of a business and less of a political meeting than the one at Genoa. This explains why Premier Lloyd George, George Tchitcherin, the Russian commissar for foreign affairs, and other statesmen who were at Genoa decided not to come to the Hague.

The Russian delegates were not surprised by the obstructionist attitude adopted by France. They had been warned at Genoa what to expect.

They feel that the conciliatory policy of Great Britain will offset to some extent the hostility of France, although they admit that the anti-Russian bloc composed of France, Belgium and the United States, makes a solution of the Russian problem most difficult.

After about three months' investigation, the mixed commission will make a report embodying recommendations as to what can be done for Russia, unless the conference breaks down in the meantime.

Russian to Claim American's Husband

By WEBB MILLER, United Press Staff Correspondent.

PATIS, June 13.—Madame Liebovit von Slatky will sail for America in a fortnight to confront the man she claims as her husband. The pretty Russian girl, who asserts that Anastase von Slatky, youthful Polish chemist, recently married to Mrs. Marion Ream-Stephens, heiress, is actually her legal husband, is anxious to meet her wealthy rival face to face.

Whether she will press bigamy charges after confronting Anastase and his American wife remains to be determined, she says.

MOOSE ATTEND PICNIC.

MARTINEZ, June 13.—More than 200 members of Contra Costa Moose lodges and auxiliaries attended the third annual picnic of Martinez Lodge of Moose at Echo Springs Sunday afternoon. Big delegations of Moose from Richmond and Pittsburg attended. At noon a barbecue feast was enjoyed and in the afternoon there was a program of games and athletic events.

Sculptor Is Wed

STANISLAW SZUKALSKI, of New York, a Polish sculptor, whose genius has been recognized by many prominent artists and critics, and who the other day married Miss Helen Walker, daughter of Dr. Samuel Walker, one of Chicago's most prominent physicians, Szukalski is 16 was the phenomenon at the Art Museum of Cracow in Poland. With money derived from the purchase of some of his work by the Cracow Museum young Szukalski came to America.—Copyright, 1922.

DEATH REPRIEVE SCANDAL BROUGHT UP IN COMMONS

Action Defended By Home Secretary; Matter Before Cabinet Meeting.

LONDON, June 13 (By United Press).—A motion to adjourn parliament as a protest against the action of Edward Shortt, home secretary, in reprieving Captain Ronald True, was defeated today, only 28 members supporting it.

The scandal resulting from the reprieve was taken up by the cabinet today. Shortt was in conference with Premier Lloyd George before the cabinet meeting.

At True's trial he was proved sane at the time he killed the girl Gertrude Yates—in a Kensington apartment. After he had been sentenced to death a medical board report was forwarded to the home office saying that True was insane at the present time. Under the law of England an insane person cannot be executed. The home office consequently reprieved True, explaining the law.

PROBATION REFUSED.

MARTINEZ, June 13.—Bennett Davis, school teacher and baseball player, was sentenced to serve from one to five years in San Quentin today by Superior Judge A. B. Mc-Kenzie after an unfavorable report had been made by Probation Officer A. J. McMahon on Davis' plea to be extended probation on a charge of second degree burglary. McMahon's report revealed that Davis had served four years in a penitentiary in British Columbia on a charge of procuring. Davis was convicted two weeks ago of robbing a tool house of the Coast Construction Company at Selby of valuable surveyors' instruments.

Californian Yacht Safe in South Seas

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—News was received in Santa Barbara June 1 which told of the safe arrival of the yacht Invader at Papeete, Tahiti, and of plans to remain there until June 8, when it was proposed to sail for Pago Pago, American Samoa. The yacht is owned by John Percival Jefferson, of Montclair, and, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson, there are on board as guests Mr. and Mrs. Tod Ford, of Pasadena, Calif.; Edward Sparrow of New York, and Dr. L. Y. Howell of Brooklyn.

The Invader left the harbor here last December for a cruise through the South Seas and, several times since, rumors spread of possibility of the craft being lost.

LIVERMORE, June 13.—Livermore entertained the Shrine automobile caravan from the East today morning. Many members of Anahmes Temple of Oakland who reside here made the trip to Stockton and returned with the caravan as far as this place and helped in the entertainment of the visitors.

A committee from the Livermore Chamber of Commerce under the leadership of Mayor William Rees and President Harry Evans of the Chamber of Commerce received the visitors and refreshments of lemonade and bouquets of flowers were distributed among them. T. W. Norris, potentate of Anahmes Temple of Oakland, was present to welcome the visiting Shriners.

IMPERIAL POTENTATE OF ALL SHRINEDOM AND HIS RETINUE

IMPERIAL POTENTATE ERNEST A. CUTTS of Alce Temple is greeted by the Shriners and their friends in San Francisco as he passes with the most colorful parade in the history of the city, setting a new mark for picturesque processions in the west. Surrounding the picture of the Imperial Potentate are views of the parade showing some of the many delegates with their bands and patrols and mascots. The center picture shows the Imperial Potentate as he appeared in the parade across the bay this morning. To the left of his picture is a section of the Al Malaikah Temple of Los Angeles, and to the right of his picture a display from Murat Temple, Indianapolis. The Syrian Temple of Cincinnati, won particular attention from the thousands of residents and visitors. This section is shown in the lower left section of the page directly beneath the picture of one of the many jesters in the line of march. On the lower right is shown the double escort to the Imperial Potentate provided by Alce Temple of Savannah and Al Sijah Temple of Macon.

PARADE TO BE BIG FEATURE OF OAKLAND'S DAY FOR SHRINERS

RED FEZ AND SCIMITAR OF ARABIA WILL REIGN SUPREME IN STREETS OF GREAT EASTBAY CITY TOMORROW

Thousands of Visiting Nobles Will Join Aahmes Temple in Procession; All Kinds of Entertainment Ready.

The red fez and the crescent and scimitar of Arabia will reign supreme on the streets of Oakland tomorrow. From morning till night the city will be turned over to the nobles attending the greatest Imperial Council ever held by the Shriners of America, in what will constitute the largest fête that Oakland has yet presented to a visiting organization.

Plans for a continuous entertainment to which every other activity of the city—business, social and otherwise—is to be subordinated, have been worked out in detail by nobles of Aahmes Temple, assisted by city officials, leaders in nearly every walk of life represented in the Eastbay and by the citizens of Oakland generally.

From the moment that an early Harbor Route ferry lands the vast foot of Broadway tomorrow morning, until the last light is turned out on Lake Merritt tomorrow night, every minute will be filled with events to be valued. Among the principal events that will mark the day set aside by Oakland for the horde of red-fezzed guests of the bay region will be the following:

Parade of several thousands of the noble in attendance at the Imperial Council through the streets of Oakland; a rendezvous at Idora Park, at which the Shrine members and their families will be the guests of the city of Aahmes Temple and of the park management; patriotic exercises in honor of National Flag Day, which falls on June 14; a radio concert furnished by the Shriners through what is probably the largest amplifier in the world; continuous dancing in the Idora pavilion; a bathing girl revue, automobile tours providing the visitors with trips to the scenic beauties of the Eastbay, and a water concert at Lake Merritt in the evening.

The parade will begin promptly at 10 a. m., at the foot of Broadway, where the visiting nobles will be landed by the Harbor Route ferry. PARADE UP BROADWAY. The line of march will lead up Broadway to Thirteenth, down Thirteenth to Alice, along Alice to Fourteenth, back on Fourteenth to San Pablo, along San Pablo to Washington, down Washington to Thirteenth, then Thirteenth to San Pablo to Sixteenth, to Telegraph, to Broadway, up Broadway to Hobart, and along Hobart to Telegraph. At Hobart and Telegraph the parade will be disbanded. The affair is members will take cars for Idora Park.

The parade will be under the direction of Grand Marshal Walter J. Peterson, who will have as his chief of staff Major J. A. Habegger, U. S. A., retired. The first unit of the parade will consist of a detachment of police, followed by members of Aahmes Temple. Following these the first division will include visiting patrols and bands, led by Major Joseph Rogers, U. S. A., assistant chief of staff. In the second division, more visiting patrols and bands will be headed by Captain Charles M. Cecil, U. S. A. In the third, still more visiting patrols and bands will be under the command of Captain Herbert Mackinson, U. S. A.

Automobiles will be permitted to park along the line of march after 9:30 tomorrow morning. Police Chief Drew announced today. This ruling is necessary, Chief Drew declared, in order to prevent traffic jams, and to enable the police to adequately handle the enormous crowds of onlookers that will line the streets. Chief Drew asked the automobile owners to assist the police as much as possible by refraining from parking their cars in the prescribed area after 9:30 until the parade is over.

SCHOOLS WILL CLOSE. All Oakland schools will be closed for the entire day, by order of the Board of Education, to permit the children of the city to witness the parade. The day's fête which will follow at Idora Park. Throughout the day no Shriner will be permitted to pay his fare on any street car in the Eastbay district.

At Idora Park every Shriner will be supplied with a book of coupons admitting him without charge to every entertainment feature of any kind operated in the park. The amusement concessions, the providing of box lunches, refreshments at the various booths, and the use of the dancing pavilion.

THOUSANDS TO ATTEND. It is anticipated that between 10,000 and 20,000 Shriners will be in attendance at the park, in addition to the members of their families, and also a large number of the general public, who will flock to witness the huge entertainment festival.

From 12:30 until 1:30 luncheon will be served the visitors at 2 o'clock a bathing girl exhibition will be presented. National Flag Day exercises will be held at 3 o'clock, at which the principal speaker will be Aahmes Temple. A feature of the exercises will be the singing of patriotic selections by Miss Thelma Theinane, Oakland girl, who is to leave shortly for a year's study in Milan, Paris and London.

WATER SPRITES COMPETE. A bathing girls' revue, in which several groups of the most picturesque and beautiful of the Eastbay, will compete for a $20 prize, will be staged at the Idora pool at 3:30 o'clock. Prominent among the entries for this contest are Estelle Winnie, Gabrielle, Miss Lillian Clyde, all of Oakland. Bathing costumes of the most modern design have been provided for all entrants who wish to make use of them, and it is expected that the spectacle presented will be one of the most effective yet beheld in the Eastbay. The bathing girls' contest will be followed at 4 o'clock by a roller-skating race in the Idora pavilion.

RADIO CONCERT TREAT. Beginning at 2 o'clock, a radio concert will be given the thousands of visitors until 6 o'clock. Music will be transmitted to the assembled crowds through what is said to be Stewart, Recorder George H. Smith and the various appointive officers, as well as the special committees for Shrine week are on hand at the temple most of the time to assist in receiving and entertaining visitors.

Motorists Must Clear Streets for Shriners' Parade

The motorists are asked by the police department not to park their cars on the streets where the Shriners parade will pass by. The streets should be cleared at 9:30 o'clock. "If the motorists will assist us in keeping the line of march clear, there will be no traffic jam," said Chief of Police James T. Drew.

By 9:30 every automobile must be off the streets and all automobiles must be parked on the side streets, Drew further stated.

San Francisco Gorgeous With Riotous Color

Shrine Formed as Masonic Playground

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The Golden Age of the Mystic Shrine, which opens today marks the fiftieth year since the mutual desire of a small group of Masons in New York City for relaxation, mirth and amusement crystallized into the formation of this organization, which is popularly known as the "playground of Masonry."

Members of Bagdad Temple, Butte, Montana, entertained the children at the Pacific Hebrew Orphanage yesterday with a complete entertainment. The band played, the jesters clown and the children applauded. It was a riotous day for all concerned.

PARADE OF MYSTIC SHRINE NOBLES IS DAZZLING EVENT

SHRINERS JOIN IN MAGNIFICENT STREET PARADE

Uniformed Branches Present Pretty Pageant in Bay Metropolis.

with white bone rings in their noses and ears.

Three temples had children among them. Damascus Patrol of Rochester, N. Y., was led by a little girl drum-major. Islam had a small boy, proudly marching at its head, and Pittsburg, Kas., had a happy small boy bringing up the rear.

Aloha Temple of Honolulu, home of James McCandless, who will be the next Imperial Potentate of the Shrine, wore both American and Canadian flags, significant of the fact that both the United States and Canada are dotted with Shrine temples.

FANCY DRILLS ARE EXECUTED BY PATROLS.

Fancy drills were executed by various temples. Among them were Damascus of Rochester, N. Y., Tripoli of Milwaukee, Wis., and Al Kader of Portland, Ore. These difficult and interesting maneuvers were executed perfectly.

Although Aladdin Temple of Columbus, O., is President Harding's own temple, El Malda Temple of El Paso, Tex., stole a march on it by appearing in Harding's blue uniform.

Airplanes soared overhead as marching thousands swung up Market street to never-ending strains of music.

One of the most enthusiastically received temples was Za-Za-Zig, of Des Moines, Ia. Their cheerfulness pervaded the crowds instantly.

Although red, yellow, green and purple were the favorite colors, several knots of white furnished a pleasant relief to the variegated colors of both the bands and patrols.

Isis Temple of Salina, Kas., may have been in mourning yesterday for the demise of John Barleycorn, but the black hearse which paraded the streets yesterday was missing today, and nothing but evidences of joy were seen in the demeanor of this group of Kansans.

BEN HUR CHARIOT HEADS THIS TEMPLE.

Ben Hur Temple of Austin, Tex., had at its head a chariot drawn by three horses, significant of the Ben Hur of the well-known novel.

Bedouin Temple of Muskogee, Okla., had a band all dressed in white, with a drum-major whose acrobatic baton performed all kinds of stunts, but the greatest attraction of Bedouin Temple was an Egyptian dancer, somewhat scanty of clothing, who twisted and contorted back and forth from one side of the street to the other.

The parade ended at 12 noon, when the last section passed the reviewing stand in the Civic Center.

From 9 a. m., when it started, until that time it had been in progress continuously, despite rain.

"Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie," the "Sun Shines East" and similar airs were popular with the bands.

ENGLAND BEGINS COUNTRY-WIDE ANTI-WAR DRIVE

LONDON, June 10.—"There shall be no more war!"

This is the battle-cry which is ringing out through Great Britain in a great campaign being initiated by religious, civic and labor organizations.

War clouds hang over Europe—of that, there is no doubt—and these clouds have been more and more visible since the Geneva Conference, when it was made very plain that the amity of the nations is not such that Europeans can look forward confidently to years of peace.

Relations between France and England are, to say the least, a bit shaky. Russia provides an ever-present source of worry to every one who is striving for world peace. There come vague rumors of monarchistic movements of increasing strength in many of the Central European nations. From every corner and nook of Europe there issue rumors of war, yet it seems certain to anyone who studies the people that the ordinary garden variety of European does not want war, no matter what the politicians may say.

Feeling the pulse of the people and diagnosing their desires as against war, a powerful movement to prevent war is now under way in England. It is planned to make the movement a world-wide campaign.

The combined power of religious, civic and labor organizations is being brought to bear in this campaign. Among those who are taking a leading part in the campaign are:

Religion—Bishop Gore, Canon Sheppard, Dr. J. H. Jowett, Labor—J. R. Clynes, A. Henderson, Robert Smillie, Frank Rodgers, Women—Margaret Bonfield, A. Maude Royden, Margaret Wintringham, M. P., and Lady Parmoor. Literature—Maurice Hewlett.

EVERY MINUTE PRODUCES NEW SHRINER STUNT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Each minute of the Shrine convention seems to bring out a new stunt. Prohibition has been buried twice and John Barleycorn once thus far; Salina, Kan., buried John with the ghost of Carrie Nation as chief mourner. One Shriner won great popularity in the lobby of a hotel with an atomizer.

"Have you a sore throat?" he asked the members of the lobby crowd, one after another.

It took long for the crowd to learn the proper answer was "yes." "Then open your mouth," would come the instructions.

The atomizer would be inserted and would do its stuff. The throat medicine was light brown in color and had a familiar aroma which won instant popularity.

Hotels reported they never in their history were so busy.

"It's just an orgy of ham and eggs," commented a waiter at breakfast. At five dining rooms 7000 fried eggs were served to Shriners today.

RICHMOND, June 13.—The city council last night ordered improvement work on Twenty-fifth street, bids for which are to be received in two weeks. The council also adopted plans and specifications for the improvement of Bay View avenue, and a resolution of intention was passed.

Because the only bid submitted for the improvement work on McBryde and Lincoln avenues was too high, the city clerk was last night instructed to re-advertise for bids.

Improvement of Stogie avenue and Forty-fifth street from Cutting to Potrero avenues was laid over for two weeks.

The council granted the application of the Contra Costa Realty Company for permission to grade Roosevelt avenue and Key boulevard in the Mira Vista district, and also to put in sidewalks, gutters and curbs.

"PECULIAR PEOPLE" CULT. B. R. NEWOOD, Eng.—Two members of the cult known as "Peculiar People" have died here without medical attendance. Their religious belief forbids the use of medicine.

FIREBOMB DROWN RATS. MAYBOL, Eng.—As a last resort to combat a plague of rats in the slaughter house district, the fire department was called out to exterminate them. Thousands of the rodents were drowned by the fire hose.

Bertrand Russell and George Bernard Shaw. Programs of campaign are being initiated for France, Germany, Holland, Sweden, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Switzerland, Portugal and the United States.

The National Council for the Limitation of Armaments is expected to carry out the American end of the campaign.

There must be a trumpet voice of the world's will to peace by which it will be made clear to the governments that there must be no war," said the appeal which has just been issued in behalf of the movement.

AAHMES TEMPLE AIDS HOSPITALITY HERE AND IN S. F.

Aahmes Temple, in addition to its lavish hospitality offered in Oakland to visiting Shriners, is maintaining an attractive reception room in the Palace Hotel. Noble Sam Burtchell welcomes all callers, while a group of Oakland women see that none of them leave without refreshment. Pretty little Miss Lorena Reimann, wearing the very last word in swimming suits, dives in and out of the door, distributing tickets to the Alameda beaches to everybody wearing a fez or an official ladies' badge.

Some of the women assisting during the week are Mrs. Charles D. Semple, Mrs. Roy Bishop, Mrs. J. M. Jonsson, Mrs. Florence Gibbons, Miss Marion Anderson and Mrs. Pearl Watts.

LIBRARY ISSUE DISCUSSED. RICHMOND, June 13.—Members of the city council discussed the library problem last night after receiving recommendation of the Building Trades Council, and the Grant Parent-Teacher Association that an appropriation for additional space be approved. The matter will be taken up at the meeting of the board of equalization next month.

ALAMEDA WILL GIVE AUTO RIDES TO ALL SHRINERS

ALAMEDA, June 13.—Several automobiles are still required to make the necessary 200 machines to place at the disposal of the Shriners who are to visit Alameda tomorrow. W. R. Calcutt, heading the local reception committee, has asked any one desiring to be of service in assisting the committee to show the visitors the city to let him know.

The machines are to assemble at 12 o'clock in front of the Alameda city hall. After receiving "Alameda" signs from the chamber of commerce the machines will proceed to the Washington School, Shattuck avenue and Sixty-first street, Oakland, to receive their Shrine guests.

The chamber of commerce committee consists of Calcutt, Mayor Frank Otis, C. J. DuFour, C. C. Adams, Al Latham, Robert Strehlow, C. B. Hollywood, C. E. Hickok, Carl Strom and Charles Tilden.

Nearly all of the yachts of the Aolian Yacht Club will participate in the Shrine regatta tomorrow afternoon.

TOKIO.—Kites are becoming a popular costume among young Japanese men of the upper class.

NEW RECORD FOR BAY TRAVEL SET BY S. P. FERRIERS

With more than 25,000 extra passengers transported across the bay by the Southern Pacific company yesterday, a new mark for transbay travel was established, according to official figures.

Captain Peter Wold was in charge of the ferryboat Alameda handling the special trains of Shriners. He arrived at San Francisco on his last special trip shortly before 9 o'clock.

Despite the throngs at the ferry, there was only one accident, according to reports, when Sergeant of Police A. G. Skelly was struck by an automobile and sustained a sprained knee.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careless in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair left. An especially fine shampoo for this purpose, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair; that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt; can easily be used at any time. It is easy to apply it to the hair instead of just to the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Kinsling leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthor shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Advertisement.

SHRINE OPENS 48TH SESSION OF IMPERIAL COUNCIL

Governor and Mayor Welcome Representatives to Bay Metropolis.

world is yours. The home temples of California are doing everything in their power to make your stay a pleasant one. Pitch your tent where you will, the earth and its fullness are yours."

Here the Governor raised a laugh among the audience by adding:

"The man who is talking to you has a pardoning power."

Mayor Ralph said:

"San Francisco is tingling with pride in the honor which you do us in having made your pilgrimage to this Mecca. San Francisco takes off its hat to the red fez. We have been preparing nearly a year for your coming, and it has been a work of love and affection. The city loved around the world bids you welcome."

Mayor Ralph paid tribute to the work done by the members of Islam and Aahmes Temples in welcoming the delegates. The mayor referred to the splendid charities of the Mystic Shrine and spoke of the hospitals for crippled children of which the Shrine now is building a unit in San Francisco.

S. F. AND STATE PROUD TO BE SHRINE HOST.

Samuel Edgerton Burke, grand master of the lodge of Free Masons, said:

"This is a happy day for San Francisco and California. We are proud to be your host and we hope you will enjoy our sunshine as well as our showers."

"You are all good Masons and the Mother Lodge bids you welcome. The great foundation stone of Masonry has been well and truly laid in the state of California."

William P. Filmer, past grand master of Masons in California, also welcomed the delegates. He described the Mystic Shrine as one of the greatest and most potent forces of the land.

E. W. Coburn, potentate of Islam Temple said:

"San Francisco was greatly honored when the Mystic Shrine designated this city for the forty-eighth annual session of the Imperial Council. Within these walls the serious work of the council takes place today and tomorrow. But outside of these four walls we shall make you so welcome that when you leave this region you will always wish to come back to San Francisco and California."

The speeches were varied by a splendid musical program, which was rendered by the individual organizations of chanters of the following temples: Yaarab Temple of Atlanta, Ga.; Al Malaikah Temple of Los Angeles; Syria Temple of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Zuhrah Temple of Minneapolis; and Za-Za-Zig Temple of Des Moines, Ia.

The hall was magnificently decorated with the colors of the Shrine and attention was riveted to the regentatives and the officers of the Imperial divan.

Promotion and appointment of new officers will be one of the main events of the session and this will take place tomorrow.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally. says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacist here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer irritating, as is so much bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and is a sure, safe, and powerful lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.

Three-Day Program, June 16, 17, 18, Arranged; Queen Contest Lively.

SAN LEANDRO, June 13.—At a meeting of the committee in charge of the "Cherry Carnival" yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce, plans for the festival were completed. Under the direction of Leslie H. Carter, a program, embracing three days' activities, June 16th, 17th and 18th, was arranged. Lloyd E. Ireland, retired amateur featherweight wrestling champion of the world, will present a series of athletic stunts as part of the free outdoor shows arranged for Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Erection of booths, sidesteps and concessions on Saunders street, extending from Washington avenue to the baseball park, will begin immediately, according to Carter. The shows have been obtained, consisting of Hawaiian dancers, snake exhibits, war exhibits, pit and freak shows, together with additional oddities and fourth-producing diversions. Eighty-five concessions will line the carnival street. A merry-go-round and Ferris wheel will be erected. The baseball park is being placed in readiness for the two-day circus and frolic. It is expected that between 40,000 and 50,000 will attend the carnival the final two days. The participants in the Cherry Dance are rehearsing daily at the city hall rooms. Shortridge Sounds Warning to Lawyers

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Warning that "antiquity is strewn with the ruins of republics" was sounded last night by Senator Samuel W. Shortridge of California, in a commencement day address before the graduates class of the National University School of Law. "Freedom in this country is not enough to endure," the Senator said, but must be tempered by organized government, law, order, justice, and means of defense from without and security from within to escape being anarchic. Senator Shortridge declared that although the profession in which he is engaged is a "dangerous" one, "ever changing," the basic principles, as laid down in the constitution, have been maintained through all the vicissitudes of national existence. He added that they had not to hold these to be safe. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Shortridge by the university during the exercises.

Girl Does Weird Paintings Under Spirits' Guidance

By J. W. T. MASON. (Written for The United Press.) NEW YORK, June 13.—Weird spiritualist oil paintings, purported to have been produced under the direction of famous artists in the other world, and establishing a new form in bas relief oil work, are puzzling pay-challenger investigators at the Anderson galleries. The medium through whom the ghostly art is put on canvas, Miss P. Marion Spore, 27, graduate of the University of Michigan, without artistic ability and a practicing dentist until her spiritualist experiences began some three years ago. She has never studied painting. She says she is under the control of twelve artist spirits, headed by the Della Robbias, who died between 40 and 500 years ago. The paintings are built up by the layers of oils applied on top of one another. Some of the objects stand out a couple of inches, like miniature colored sculptures framed on a flat surface. Except for a few pictures of flowers and fruit, done, according to Miss Spore, under special direction of the Della Robbias, all of the paintings have a mystic significance. But Miss Spore herself is not at all mystical. She is anxious not to ally herself with spiritualism because she fears quacks and frauds.

ARMIES SHOULD REBUILD EUROPE, SAYS ENGINEER

Major Watts Submits Plan to League of Nations for Consideration.

By DAVID M. CHURCH. International News Service Staff Correspondent. LONDON, June 13.—Europe's rebuilding program, standing armies—this is the plan that has been suggested to the League of Nations by Major A. D. Watts, former chief engineer of the Seventh Battalion Canadian Railway Troops and now director of a steel corporation in England.

Major Watts declares that the standard armies of Europe are wasteful, tremendous energy in maneuvers and drills and that if these armies were given the constructive task of rebuilding war-torn Europe the economical loss could be almost a disarmament approaching. Major Watts said: "The European nations must maintain small defensive armies, and if so, why should not those armies be used to reconstruct the continent? It would not interfere with industry, because work on ports, harbors and forests that would be undertaken is work that no one else can afford to do. Take the case of France. Her ports are in a wretched state, the terminal facilities on her railways are bad, and there is room for great development in hydro-electric power. There is no reason, too, why her potash deposits should not be better worked. Major Watts does not believe the military value of the standing armies would be lessened by their being used for constructive purposes, and he proposes that troops shall have at least two months of intensive military training each year. The armies would develop a high technical efficiency by undertaking reconstruction work. Major Watts declared, and he pointed out that the World War was really an engineers' war and 8 per cent of the time of the armies was spent in engineering projects. The plan, which has been submitted to the League of Nations by Major Watts, provides that the various nations shall finance such public works of reconstruction as they shall be able to finance and that the League of Nations shall finance other projects which will work to the advantage of international trade. Major Watts said: "Instead of liabilities," said Major Watts.

What's Happening In Motor World

The Willys Overland Co. at Toledo has not been purchased by the Durant Motor Co. of New York nor is the Willys Overland Co. going out of business. A statement published last Friday night in The TRIBUNE told of the purchase by Durant interests at an auction sale of the buildings in Elizabeth, N. J., which had been put up by the Willys Corporation. In this New Jersey plant, controlled by a subsidiary company which John Willys at one time headed, the Chrysler brothers had been built. The factory was finished about two years ago when hard times hit the east and the bankers who financed the project tightened up the purse strings, with the result that a magnificent industrial institution remained idle. Up to the present time the plant has been unoccupied and when those whose money was tied up in the buildings decided to unload it they proceeded to do so at a public sale. The successful bidder was W. C. Durant, who wanted the property for his Star car. Willys long since relinquished what rights he had in the plant, but investment and for months has confined his time to directing production of the Overland Four and Willys Knight cars. That he has been eminently successful is shown in the production reports which come from Toledo and which state in clear, cold figures that more models of each one of these cars is being built every day than cars ever turned out before by Willys. Consequently rumors that have been unwisely spread do an injustice to Willys when they are to the effect that he has sold out.

FEDERAL FILMS SHOW HABITS OF AMERICAN BIRDS

Department of Agriculture Will Release Movies on Fowl Life.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Bird lovers who also are motion-picture devotees have a treat in store for them. Two motion pictures dealing exclusively with birds have just been completed by the Department of Agriculture and soon will make their appearance on the screen in "movie" houses throughout the country. One of the Agriculture Department's pictures shows the "National Bird Refugees on the Gulf of Mexico." It starts with the reservation patrol boat, which takes the visitors from Pass Christian to the low-lying islands off the Louisiana coast. The other film, entitled "Anne Alagrette," shows interesting pictures of the American egret, snow heron and other birds on the Walker Lake Reservation in Arkansas. The picture is so arranged as to demonstrate the inhumanity of the frame in the plumage of these birds for the purpose of personal adornment. Anne shows her new hat to her husband, who notices the plume on it and explains that it is a egret's plume. He tells her how these birds have been almost exterminated through the work of plume hunters. He then describes his visit to a Federal bird refuge and the egret he saw there. The scenes shift to a great cypress swamp in Arkansas. After the explanation Anne decides she will not wear the plume. The pictures are both short, one reel each, and will soon be distributed.

COUNCIL ORDERS HALF OF S. J. PARK KEPT FOR WOMEN

Men Barred From Half of Park Following Request By Women's Club.

SAN JOSE, June 13.—Women and children of San Jose are to enjoy the benches in one-half of St. James park free from the presence or disturbance of mere men. The local city council, so decreed last night following a request from officials of the San Jose Women's Club that some action be taken.

City Manager C. B. Goodwin was instructed to draw up an ordinance providing for the placement of "For Women and Children Only" benches in that portion of the park to be kept exclusively for them.

The action followed the reading of a letter signed by Mrs. Maud E. Irish, corresponding secretary of the women's club. The letter follows:

"It has come to the attention of the San Jose Women's Club that ladies and children would enjoy occupying the seats in St. James park were it not for the fact that they are monopolized by men, who are not always courteous. Some times a ruling was made setting aside a portion of the park for ladies, but that seems to have lapsed now. We would respectfully ask the council to take up this matter again."

Plans and specifications for the improvement of River street, from the north line of Santa Clara street to the north line of St. James street, were adopted by the council, as was a resolution expressing intention to improve Orchard street, between the north line of Balboa street and the south line of Grant street.

Resolutions adopting plans and specifications for the improvement of Tenth street, between the north line of Santa Clara street and the south line of Julian street, and of Market street, between the north line of San Carlos street and the west property line of the post office, were also adopted. A petition of property owners on Julian street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, asking the improvement of San Fernando street, was granted, as was a similar petition of residents of Twenty-fourth street, between Santa Clara street and Key road. Authorization of the improvement of San Fernando street, between First and Second streets, was granted the Hugh Crumney Company on petition of Lean and Jung, the Garden City Bank and Trust Company, A. E. Hollins and Leonard Martin. The petition of property owners on River street from San Fernando to Park avenue for improvement of that street was also granted, completing the street improvement work of the evening.

Permits to sell soft drinks were issued to Mrs. J. Matt of the Crystal grocery, 348 East Santa Clara street; Mrs. Matitz of 202 South Tenth street; and Mrs. B. B. Gallen of 165 East Santa Clara street. The applications were the first to be made by women under the city ordinance.

San Jose Women's Club Reviews Work of Year

SAN JOSE, June 13.—One of the most interesting and largely attended meetings of the San Jose Women's Club ever held here was that of last Saturday, when members gathered in the local clubhouse for the final meeting of the club year. No further meetings will now be held until after the summer vacation period.

A review of the accomplishments of the past club year was an interesting feature of the afternoon, special emphasis being placed on the work of the various departments of the organization.

Mrs. J. Kopple spoke on the activities of the home economics section of the club, telling of the spirited attendance contest which was carried out successfully, while Mrs. F. B. Brown outlined in an interesting manner the meetings held by the literature section of the club, speaking of the books reviewed and the speakers who addressed the meetings.

Work of art, travel and music section was the subject of review by Mrs. E. S. Wheeler, while Dr. Mary Bearby spoke on the community welfare work of the women's club, one of the most important phases of the organization.

Mrs. J. C. Jure, outgoing president, addressed the women briefly, thanking the committees and members for their spirit of loyalty and cooperation throughout the year.

She complimented Mrs. J. E. Roelke, chairman of the social committee, and Mrs. Mary Wiessen, head of the decoration committee, for their splendid work.

Others addressing the final meeting were Mrs. E. A. Holland, first vice-president; Mrs. J. W. Nixon, recording secretary; Mrs. M. V. Hubbard, house committee; Miss Nellie Smith, finance committee, and Mrs. Flora Edwards of the press committee. Mrs. Edwards lauded the press for generous space given the activities of the organization.

Miss Jessie Williamson, next year's president, addressed the women Saturday, outlining her plans for the coming year and requesting the same cooperation which has been extended the president during the past year.

Past presidents were given seats of honor at the meeting and were welcomed by Mrs. Jure to the "down and out club," an interesting little ceremonial attending the event.

A luncheon of past presidents was held at the Y. W. C. A. preceding Saturday's meeting, those attending being Mrs. Stephen Jones, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Mrs. J. V. Halsey, Mrs. N. J. Grey, Mrs. J. H. Easley, Mrs. C. E. Rowell, Mrs. A. P. Murgott, Mrs. E. E. Stahl and Mrs. John G. Jure.

SPEEDERS FACE ARREST IN S. J.

SAN JOSE, June 13.—Traffic violations in this city, following a period in which they had materially decreased, are once again on the increase, and a new crusade against such violators is being mapped by local police authorities, backed by Police Judge Thomas R. Dougherty, according to statements here today.

The presence of 52 violators of city and state traffic laws in Judge Dougherty's court room yesterday at the weekly traffic matinee led to the conclusion that a new and strenuous campaign against such offenders must immediately be launched. "All but three of the 52 offenders paid fines to the judge here today."

"We shall see whether or not this thing cannot be stopped," declared the judge. "There is to be no spirit of liberality in the court's actions henceforth unless a decrease in traffic violations is found."

Radio Research Work Explained

SAN JOSE, June 13.—Scores of local radio fans last night listened to an address on the origin and progress of radio by Professor Charles Herold, local "father" of the radio game, at a meeting in the convention hall of the local chamber of commerce. The meeting was conducted under the auspices of the San Jose Radio Club, an organization which has grown rapidly since its inception here a few weeks ago.

Professor Herold outlined the research work he has carried out in his laboratories here in connection with radio work. He conducted a number of experiments last night for the benefit of his audience. The usual code practice was held starting promptly at 7 o'clock, this being a feature of the work of the radio club.

Barrett and Ede were the agents of the police in all of the eight cases dismissed yesterday.

At the same time Chief of Police J. N. Black moved for dismissal of a gambling charge against Leo Belmore, against whom the greater part of the evidence had been obtained by Barrett.

PLAN TO UNITE THREE SCHOOL DISTRICTS FAILS

Trustees of Mountain View, Cupertino and Sunnyvale Districts Fail to Agree.

SAN JOSE, June 13.—Plans for the consolidation of the Mountain View, Cupertino and Sunnyvale high school districts, launched more than a year ago by residents of those districts, have apparently failed, according to statements from Sunnyvale this morning. A meeting of the trustees of the three high school districts was held at Sunnyvale yesterday in anticipation of reaching some agreement covering the consolidation project, but no agreement could be reached. It is understood that yesterday's meeting will be the last to be held jointly by the trustees of the three districts.

The next step, it was indicated today, will be an effort by Sunnyvale and Cupertino districts to join with the Palo Alto high school district. Mountain View, it is understood, will undertake steps immediately for the erection of a new high school for that district exclusively.

The Human Terms of Tire Competition

ANY an American citizen has turned down a "job that looks like more money" in favor of a chance to do better work.

He gets called an idealist, perhaps. But when folks want to buy good merchandise and satisfactory service he's the kind of man they look for.

For practical example note the tire business,

Think back to the time when cord tires started to be talked about.

Cord construction had for its ideal a bigger service value for the car owner.

Whenever the cord principle was faithfully carried out it lived up to its original vision.

Now the makers of U. S. Royal Cords ask permission to put this on record:

Without high integrity of manufacture the cord tire might just as well not have been discovered at all.

Respect for the fine and rigid rules of cord tire building has made U. S.

Prices on United States Passenger Car Tires and Tubes, effective May 8th, are not subject to war-tax, the war-tax having been included.

BUMPER GRAIN CROP PREDICTED FOR RIO VISTA

Cutting of Record Crop Is Started By Solano County Ranchers.

RIO VISTA, June 13.—Harvesting has started in Rio Vista, Smith Church being the first farmer to start reaping the grain crop. Operations were started on his ranch yesterday when the Hansen Bros. harvester commenced cutting the grain.

Church states that the grain crop this year is going to be one of the best in this section for a number of years, thirty-five bushels or more per acre, being about what he expects from his land. Other land in the section planted and operated under more favorable conditions will undoubtedly yield a heavier crop than that, although it is better than average.

Church's prediction as to the bumper crop to be harvested is dict the heaviest yield of grain for more than twenty years, while even the most conservative say all crops will be above average. The outlook for grain is better than some of the other crops, although the unusually adverse weather conditions and bad rains for a time threatened to ruin the prospects for this season.

Jealousy Charged In Divorce Plaintiff

MARTINEZ, June 13.—Louis Savio of Richmond was so jealous and suspicious of his wife, Linda, that he objected to her going out evenings with women friends, according to suit for divorce instituted here today by the latter. The charges, on the plaintiff's side, when she returned to her home in the evening, her husband locked her out and she was forced to sleep in the barn over night. When she entered the home in the morning, she alleged, her husband slapped her face. The couple married in 1912 and have two children, whose custody the wife asks.

The dock-trail destroyer Traver had a dock trial on Monday. The project is to be placed in commission after July 1.

FERRY ROUTE IS INSPECTED

RIO VISTA, Solano Co., June 13.—Solano Supervisors John R. Thornton and Dave Fleming, chairman of the committee on the proposed auto and freight ferry between Colinsville and Pittsburg, arrived in Vallejo today to inspect the proposed route. The project is to be seriously considered by residents of the Colinsville and Bird Landing sections, as well as the Pittsburg and Antioch people, for some time. Recently the Solano County Farm Bureau has taken the matter up, and it is now working toward a solution of the problem.

At the joint meeting of the farm bureau at Birds Landing last Tuesday night a motion was passed requesting the Solano supervisors to view the project and pass upon its merits.

While the supervisors have made no statement as to their attitude on the matter, it is thought they are in favor of the project, but they have authority to assist in the construction of the ferry.

A committee, appointed by Archie McCormack, president of the Rio Vista Farm Bureau, will meet with the officials of the ferry on Tuesday night at the Colinsville section, for the purpose of discussing ways and means to put the project through.

GYPSY WOMEN TELL FORTUNES FOR SHRINERS

SANTA RITA, June 13.—The spirit of commerce, quick to take advantage of unusual business conditions, has drawn a caravan of fortune tellers to this town. The women are reaping richly of the curiosity of eastern Shriners.

With hundreds of Shriners from all sections of the nation coming to the bay region by automobile through the Dublin highway, opportunity to pursue their art of fortune telling has been offered the women.

A dozen of the women, garbed in bright red and yellow scarves and sashes, true to magazine conceptions of the nomads, made camp at the Santa Rita junction Sunday afternoon and so far have found their fortune telling talents in demand.

Hundreds of Shriners from scores of eastern temples have tarried at Santa Rita, and the women have crossed the palms of the women with silver and to hear prophecies of the future.

"Business is good for the gypsies. Some of them have made a hundred dollars by telling fortunes since the Shrine caravans began passing through Santa Rita," said Manuel Silva, local rancher, today.

LEGION CARNIVAL DRAWS CROWD TO AID HOUSE FUND

Citizens Respond to Plan to Raise Building Sum; Carnival Is Big Success.

LIVERMORE, June 13.—The Legion Carnival held here Friday and Saturday evenings was one of the most successful affairs ever pulled off in Livermore. From start to finish the people of the valley joined in the spirit of the occasion and late Saturday night when every booth had disposed of its wares the crowd lingered, tired but happy, and still willing to spend the night.

Friday evening the crowd was larger than was expected and over $900 was taken in at the booths and other attractions. On Saturday afternoon the crowd began to gather and by the time the parade took place at 7:30 a large crowd was on hand to participate in all of the festivities. When the committee made the rounds collecting in the money from the different booths and the approximate total was made it was found that over $2700 had been taken in. This amount, plus the proceeds of the previous evening brought the total up to over $3300. As the expenses of the carnival will not run very high a good sum will be turned over to the building fund of the Legion.

Numerous narrow escapes from accidents in several of the towns have been reported lately, he said.

Water Rate Fight Is Nearing Finish

MARTINEZ, June 13.—City Attorney A. F. Bray and City Engineer Ben Greene of San Francisco yesterday to attend final hearing before the Railroad Commission on the application of the Port Costa Water Company for an increase in its rates. The city and the Southern Pacific Company are opposing the application.

If the application is granted only rates to Martinez, the Southern Pacific, the Shell Oil Company and other big concerns, purchasing water in big quantities would be increased. The increase, according to Bray, would amount to a return of seven per cent on an investment of $600,000 as at present. Continuance of hearing of the application was ordered following a preliminary hearing here at which company officials submitted valuation surveys.

How many memberships during the next year will you give of $13 per year will you carry?

How much budget will you subscribe for the year?

JURY INDICTS PAINT PROMOTER

MARYSVILLE, Calif., June 13.—The Yuba county grand jury yesterday returned two indictments against H. D. Williams, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses and with violation of the California corporate securities act. Jury action was a result of alleged false statements made in connection with the incorporation of a company to manufacture paint here. Bonds of $2000 on each charge were fixed.

It is alleged Williams asserted he had contracts for minerals located near Spenceville, Nevada county, secured from James G. Berryhill, Berkeley, when he had no such contracts. Williams is charged in the indictments with having obtained $8000 from local people. He recently was arrested in San Francisco.

Valley Streams Stocked With Fish, Says Warden

PLEASANTON, June 13.—Not in years has fishing in the creeks of the Amador valley been so excellent as this season, according to Deputy Game Warden Frank Donahue of this district, who recently completed a survey of the creeks. The fruits of Donahue's efforts in the past years to restock the streams from the state fish hatchery are being plucked this season for nearly all streams are well stocked with large sized trout, local anglers say.

Although so close to the great Northern California centers of population the Amador valley has plenty of fishing and hunting left for sportsmen, deer this season being plentiful in the hills, Donahue says.

The season, opening in three months, will find more deer in the hills here than for several seasons past.

Reports that coyotes are killing the fawn and worrying the does have been made by cattlemen and ranchers who are waging war on the predatory animals. Vaqueros of the Dublin and Amador sections who have been holding coyote hunts often this year, are planning a more active campaign to cope with the increasing number of coyotes, it is said.

With fishing and hunting promises excellent Pleasanton and the Amador valley expects a record number of sportsmen to visit this section later in the summer.

Queer Malady Costs Lives of Fine Cows

ANGELS CAMP, June 13.—The sudden and mysterious death of a number of fine milk cows in this immediate neighborhood has aroused no end of speculation tinged with suspicion. So far half a dozen fine animals have died. Local veterinarians declare the sickness is unlike any they have ever encountered in animals. The cow dies within an hour after being stricken. Owing to the suddenness of the attack and its deadly results, some believe that poison is being used. Others think the trouble is caused by a mysterious weed. Should more animals die, the state veterinarian will be called. Mrs. L. Hendricks, James Lee, M. Atrola and Peter Sarocca have sustained losses.

Army Worms Tackle Tough Old Chaparral

MURPHYS, June 13.—And now the so-called army worms are eating up the chaparral. Swarms of the mhave appeared in this section, and, most unusual, have taken to the chaparral, whose leaves they are stripping clean. Old timers declare they have never seen a worm before that would tackle this brush. In a few isolated instances the worms have entered orchards, but so far no great damage has resulted. However, the farmers and vine and tree men are deeply apprehensive and are watching the situation closely.

JIMMY O'CONNELL REPLACES ELLISON AS LEADING HITTER

PONDER OF ANGELS, MITCHELL OF SEALS ARE TIED FOR COAST LEAGUE PITCHING HONORS

OAKLAND STICKERS SHOW IMPROVEMENT WITH THE WAR CLUB

Joe Kelly Making Game Fight to Become Leading Hitter in Pacific Coast League.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Jimmy O'Connell, Seal outfielder, is again out in the lead of the batters in the Pacific Coast League, while his teammate, Bert Ellison, who lead last week, has dropped down to fifth position among the regulars. O'Connell gained nine points during the past series with the Angels, and he needed every one of them in order to keep Joe Kelly, another of his playmates, from stepping on his toes. It appears as though nobody can put a stop to Kelly's hitting streak and he is now within a point of the four hundred society. Last week O'Connell was just in it. Bert Ellison had a tough week of it against the Angel pitchers and tumbled from .402 to .377. He got but five hits in the seven games. Sammy Hale, the Portland Beaver, who threatened at this time last week to become the leading hitter of the league, suffered a slump almost as bad as Ellison and is now perched under the slipping Seal.

Frank Brazil, also of the Beavers, refuses to let any of the P. C. L. hitters put a stop to his good stick work and has advanced more than a half dozen points to tie him next to Joe Kelly. Paul Strand, Oscar Vitt, Joe Willhoit and Joe Jenkins of the Salt Lake Bees found it great sport battling against the Sacramento pitchers and they all added to their percentage of last week. The Oaks continue to plug along in the race without having a regular batter in the lead circle, but there is hope that Bill Mariotti, their second sacker, will be in there before the end of the present week. Most of the other clubs in the league have visited Salt Lake already and helped to swell their averages, so this week will bring the turn for the Oaks. Mariotti has hit the ball hard ever since his return to the lineup, and he is now up to .293. Every Oak with the exception of Art Koehler failed to slip any in their hitting against the Vernon pitching. Koehler, who probably is in need of a rest, lost five more points last week and now down to .340. The locals were certainly weakened by his failure to come through with the stick this season. Last year he was one of the best in the benches. "Frenchy" LaFayette, Don Brown, "Frenchie" LaFayette, Claude Cooper and Denny White all fattened their averages, while Ray Brubaker failed to gain or lose. Ted Cather dropped down a couple of points.

Maury Schick of the Salt Lake Bees continues to retain the crown of leading runmaker and home run hitter. Maury has scored 62 times, while Billy Lane of Seattle is next with 55 runs to his credit. Claude Cooper of the Oaks is among the leaders with 52. Schick cracked the apple for nine home runs, and Charley High of Portland has made eight. Shoshon of Sacramento and Poole of Portland are next in line with seven.

Claude Cooper allowed Jimmy O'Connell of the Seals to take the lead in base stealing. Cooper and Don Brown both failed to steal a bag last week, while O'Connell stole two. Evidently the catchers all over the league were working with strong arms last week, as there was very little base stealing. McCann of Portland leads in sacrifice hits, while Sand of Salt Lake, and Hawks of Vernon have each hit seven. The best in two-baggers with 24, Maury Schick of the Bees has hit 23.

The unofficial batting averages to date follow:

"Golden Twins" of the Coast League

Just a glimpse of JIMMY O'CONNELL (left) and WILLIAM KAMM (right), as they appeared while talking things over on the Seal bench. The young fellows have been nicknamed the "Golden Twins" because of the big money they brought the owners of the San Francisco Seals. O'Connell is now the champion hitter of the Coast league, while Willie Kamm is in a slump. But Willie promises to snap out of it before long.

"Red" Killefer Not Satisfied With His Club

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—As a result of the poor showing of his club against the San Francisco team last week, Wade Killefer, manager of the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast League, is planning a drastic shake-up of the Angels, to take place within the immediate future, according to local sports writers who returned yesterday with the Angels. Killefer is said to be somewhat disappointed with the team's work displayed by his men. Although the Seals won five out of seven games of the series at San Francisco last week, Killefer is declared to be of the opinion that it was the support and not the pitching staff which pulled the Angels' percentage down. Killefer is said to be planning a change in the batting lineup as well as the recalling of one or more players farmed out earlier in the season. The Angels open a series with the Seattle club here tomorrow.

"Hack" Miller Is Hitting 'Em For the Cubs

CHICAGO, June 13.—Warm weather pitchers are as old as baseball, but no sport writer before wrote of a warm weather hitter. "Hack" Miller, leading batter of the Coast league last week and now a member of the Chicago Nationals, claims to be one. During a fanning bee in Chicago, the Cubs' strong man said: "If Killefer gives me a chance when the weather gets hot I'll show the fans that I can hit."

Because of his weak hitting during the early part of the season, the Cub outfielder has been out of the game for some time, but when the warm weather set in he got his chance. He started last Friday against the Giants. In his last sixteen times at bat he has poled out ten hits including three doubles, partly proving his theory.

Minneapolis Continues to Increase Mark

MINNEAPOLIS, June 13.—The Minneapolis American Association club today entered its game with Columbus at the latter city with its record of not having been shut out run up to 331 games. The Millers reached that mark in the contest with the Senators yesterday. Minneapolis recently established what was said to be a world's record when it passed 300 games without having been blanked. The last A. A. pitcher to let the Millers down without a tally was Ben Tincep, Indian slab artist with the Louisville Colonels, who turned the trick in August, 1931. Recently the local club has had some close calls. In the past few weeks Dick Wade, Miller center-felder, has saved the team's record with timely bingles, on at least four occasions, against the long run needed to prevent a shutout.

Ken. Williams Adds His 15th Circuit Drive

Rogers Hornsby, "Bing" Miller Also Click One For Long Trip.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Three of Babe Ruth's home run rivals had forged still further ahead of the Yankee slugger as the result of a simultaneous skirmish yesterday. Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns, who has been in a woeful slump for several weeks, cracked out his fifteenth circuit drive; Rogers Hornsby, his National league fellow on the same team, drove his fourteenth and Bing Miller of the Athletics collected his thirteenth.

The Cardinals went on a swatting rampage against three Philadelphia pitchers and their own major league record of ten consecutive hits in a single inning. Trailing the Phillies, 6 to 3, in the sixth, the westerners opened a barrage against the New York bats which brought seven runs across the plate. Fourner began and ended the hitting streak in

BENNY VIERRA COMPLETES TRAINING FOR BOUT TOMORROW NIGHT WITH L. A. CHAMPION

Feathers to Swap Punches Tomorrow Eve

Local Boy, Confident He Will Make Good Showing.

Benny Vierra, the little local featherweight, says that he is all prepared for his tangle tomorrow night at the Oakland Auditorium with Danny Kramer, the Southern California champion, who is coming here with a reputation that places him above the boys of the featherweight class in the state. Vierra has been in training at the Oakland Athletic Association gymnasium for the past week, and according to Bob McAllister, his manager, Benny will put up the best exhibition of boxing that the fans have witnessed here in a long while. Benny will have to be in top form if he hopes to retain his standing against Kramer, as the Southern California boy certainly is the class. Danny has the reputation of being one of the hardest hitting featherweights in the United States, so it will be up to Vierra to keep a close watch that Danny does not put one of the hardest ones over on him. Kramer is due to arrive here tomorrow morning in company with his manager, Charlie Cline.

The Vierra-Kramer attraction is a big one in itself, as each boy is the best in the section of the state he represents, but Tommy Simpson has had plenty of time to work on his program for tomorrow evening, so he is offering what looks to be one of the best of the season.

Johnny Burns, the Alameda lad, always pleases the cash customers, and is meeting a good opponent in Ray Pulley, who claims a pair of victories over George (Gibbons), the fellow who was a sensation around here a short while ago.

Alen McDonald and Johnny Loney promise to make the fur fly in their sub-125-pounder bout. Loney is coming down from Sacramento to keep the date. The little fellow has shown here before and made a hit.

Salvor Walters is promising to give Frankie McCann a lesson in sitting and self-defense. Walters will have to show a lot of class if he wants to live up to his promise. He is a leader on Uncle Sam's local team, which is now anchored in San Francisco bay. The U. S. S. Idaho sailors think there is nobody as good as their pride, and they will be out in force tomorrow evening. McCann's win over Young Brown shows a warning to Walters.

Tommy Simpson has three other bouts programmed, and Harold Agnemon Broom, who usually does the talking for Simpson, claims that they will be real battles. Cap Nelson is down for a mix-up with Charlie Sothar. Al Crisp meets Jimmy Roth, and Dick Wallace is scheduled for a date with Joe Dunn.

Art Klein Shows Speed on the Track
SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—Art Klein, the "whirling dervish" of the speedways, practicing for tomorrow's Shrine automobile race on the San Carlos speedway near here, drove 112 miles an hour for several laps yesterday. Klein believes that the record for 150 miles will be broken in the race tomorrow.

Two of the drivers, Cliff Durant and "Howdy" Wilcox, are Shriners and will wear the red fez safely strapped to their chin by rubber bands while they are racing.

Meets Kramer Tomorrow

Presenting BENNY VIERRA, who is scheduled to box Frank Kramer of Los Angeles tomorrow night at Tommy Simpson's weekly show. Benny is one of the favorites of the local field, having met the best in his class and established a reputation for being a hard hitter.

Southern Mermaids Are to Appear Here

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 12.—Thelma Finn, Viola Hartman and Helen Vernon, swimming stars of the Los Angeles Athletic club, left last night for San Francisco, where they will compete tomorrow night in an all-around swimming and diving meet.

Wright Sets New Mark at Flintridge

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—Fred J. Wright, nationally known golfer, established a new record for the Flintridge Country club course, near here, when he negotiated the 18 holes in 70 strokes.

Oakland Net Team Swamps Technical Hi

University and Fremont Meet on Courts Today; O. A. L. Title Is at Stake

Oakland's net team swamped Technical yesterday in the fourth round of the local High School League tennis tournament by capturing four of the five matches played. The league standings follow:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Oakland	11	4	.733
University	7	3	.700
Technical	6	9	.400
Fremont	1	9	.100

The second singles match was the only one during yesterday's play not won by the Blue and White. Elmer Laine of Technical took two straight sets from John Trueman of the O. A. L. by the score of 6-2, 6-1. Laine played with his usual consistent form and experienced no difficulty in besting Trueman.

John Russo, captain of the Oakland team, walked away with the first singles match in two straight, 6-1, 6-2. He excelled in placement and in his serve, while his opponent, Arthur Victor of Technical, was out of form.

Eddie Ogden (Technical) looked to be a winner in his third singles match with Jimmy Higgins (Oakland), but fell down in the second set and failed to regain his lead. The final score for the match stood 4-6, 6-2, 6-3.

CLIMAX OF DAY.
The first doubles match was the climax of the day's play. Arthur Victor and Elmer Laine (Technical) won the first set, 6-2. The tide turned in the middle of the second set, 6-2. The third set went to Oakland by the score of 6-1. Russo was the outstanding star of the match, covering the court with rapidity and playing practically the whole match for his side. Trueman was far below his usual form, serving repeated doubles. His partner won the set. Victor was far below his usual form, failing to cover the court at times and driving a number of balls out of bounds. His partner, Laine, while not starring, played a fairly consistent game. Had Victor been in his usual form, it is not at all unlikely that the match would have gone the other way.

LAST MATCHES TODAY.
University and Fremont meet today in the last scheduled match of the Oakland High School Tennis League. University is conceded a winner in the larger proportion of the five matches played, possibly in all five. Should she succeed in making her wins unanimous, she will have won the league title. Should University win four and drop one, then she will be tied with Oakland for first place and have to play it off. Should the University players lose more than one, the title goes to Oakland without further argument. University appears to be a cinch to win in her first and second singles and her first doubles matches. In the third singles, the result is more in doubt. Her second doubles team has not won a league match yet and is not rated very highly, so that it will be no great surprise if she drops that match. The contest today will be watched with interest by Oakland High's racquet players, for the result in today's matches depends her chance for the much coveted title.

Tomorrow, the crews of Oakland, Fremont, Commerce, Polytechnic and Mission High schools will row the 880 yard course on Lake Merritt as part of the entertainment for the Flintridge Country club course, near here, when he negotiated the 18 holes in 70 strokes.

While in the nature of an exhibition row, the event should produce some good competition.

GOLF

The Claremont women players concluded their season's play when they defeated twelve visitors from Belvedere. About thirty players participated in a handicap medal contest for two trophies. The first prize, a handsome silver bon-bon dish, was won by Mrs. H. M. Porter of the home team. Mrs. Kamp of Belvedere was second and received a silver cup. In the sweepstake event Mrs. Lorber was also winner, with Miss Alice Knowles second. Mrs. C. T. Ford and Mrs. H. A. Proll both failed to play up to their usual club form, despite some good practice rounds they have been making recently. In the absence of Miss Knowles, who has gone to Lake Tahoe, Mrs. B. P. Legare will be in charge until their captain returns. No tournaments will be held at Claremont during the vacation, but the members who are still at home have an invitational event to attend at Berkeley on Thursday, the 22d.

Dr. J. H. Stinemann, playing over the first nine holes at Sequoyah, had a remarkable score of 33, made up as follows:

Stinemann	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Parr	5	4	4	4	3	5	4	4

Stinemann's 4th was the only bad hole. A birdie at the 10th compensated for his 4 at the 9th. Parr 4-2, another birdie 4 at the long 6th represented good shooting.

GOLF FACTS worth knowing
by INNIS BROWN

Q. Does the rule which allows a player to move sticks, rocks and the like from around the ball apply in the rough as well as on the fairway?
A. Of course, such things cannot be moved at all unless they are within a club length of the ball.

Q. To settle an argument, will you please state what kind of wood is used in the making of clubs?
A. Persimmon is the most popular wood for clubheads, though other kinds are possibly used now and then.

Q. A short time since in a friendly match, one of the chaps with whom I was playing found his ball lying just in front of a small lump or clod of dirt. Although it was not detached from the surface, he stepped on it and smoothed it down. Did he incur a penalty in doing so?
A. Yes. The penalty for such is loss of the hole in match play and two strokes in medal play.

Q. Is there any penalty where a player's ball hits a caddy stationed on the course to notify players coming up to a blind hole, when the putting match has cleared off the green?
A. No, there is no penalty for hitting a fore caddy. The incident is treated as a rub of the green, and ball played from where it stops.

Q. How far back of the markers on the tee is a player allowed to take his ball in conformance with the rules?
A. The ball must be teed not further back than two club lengths from the markers.

Like Magic--
Yesterday you saw a dilapidated auto. You heard it, too. What was left of the paint was covered with dirt and the top was all caved in. As for noise, it wheezed and it squeaked, it groaned and it rattled.

But today that same car is bright and shiny, and the only sound you hear is the smooth purring of the engine.

It is remarkable what a difference a new top, a few coats of paint, and a thorough mechanical overhauling will make. Not only are the appearance and comfort of the car greatly improved, but its life is almost doubled.

Golf Crowns Topple; Others Are Wobbling

Cecil Leitch Loses Title to Joyce Wethered; Willie Hunter Beaten

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, June 13.—(United Press.)—Already the young 1922 golf season looks like a heartless champion buster.

Two big champions have already been succeeded and more look all tagged and billed for the fate.

Miss Cecil Leitch, former British woman champion, regarded as the greatest woman player in the world, not only lost her title to Miss Joyce Wethered but received the worst beating that a finalist ever received in that tournament.

Next on the list was Willie Hunter, British amateur champion, who dropped his title to E. W. Holder.

The British open championship is next on the list and it isn't yielding the hammer to figure that Jack Hutchinson, the American holder of the title, may be the next champion.

Before sailing, Jack the Hutch warned his followers not to expect too much of him and he announced that he felt he would not be able to retain the title. Jack knows a good deal about British golf and the conditions under which the tournaments are staged over there and he is not rash enough to boast of a doubtful conquest.

Many golf experts figure that Jesse Guifford, American amateur champion, will retire after one year's reign and Jim Barnes will have no easy time coming out on top of the open pile again this year.

Americans did not figure very much in the British championships this year because the golf association refused to sponsor a big invasion and very few of the American stars were in a position to go "on their own."

Miss Alexa Sterling in winning the Metropolitan women's championship showed she is back in the form which gave her predominance over all the other American women stars for several years.

It would be no surprise this year to see her win back both the American and the Canadian titles.

Miss Leitch had intended to invade Canada and the United States again this summer, but since she has lost her title she may cancel her engagements. Miss Wethered, the new champion, hasn't had time to make any plans, but it is doubtful if she can make arrangements for an American trip on such short notice.

GORMAN BOXES DRAW.
ABERDEEN, Wash., June 13.—Joe Gorman of Portland and Jimmy Sacco of Boston went six rounds to a draw last night. Mike Dopolito of Portland drew with Mike Ballerino of Camp Lewis. Jack Robinson, Aberdeen heavyweight, shaded Edal if she can make arrangements for an American trip on such short notice.

Yesterday you saw a dilapidated auto. You heard it, too. What was left of the paint was covered with dirt and the top was all caved in. As for noise, it wheezed and it squeaked, it groaned and it rattled.

But today that same car is bright and shiny, and the only sound you hear is the smooth purring of the engine.

It is remarkable what a difference a new top, a few coats of paint, and a thorough mechanical overhauling will make. Not only are the appearance and comfort of the car greatly improved, but its life is almost doubled.

Al. Karasick Training Hard For Joe Mondt

With a chance to make a side clean-up of $500 by not permitting Joe (Toots) Mondt to pin him to the mat twice in one hour, Al Karasick, the local wrestling champion, is putting in plenty of training at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Joe Khourmian, his manager and promoter of the show, which is to be staged at Ahmehs Pavilion next Friday night, claims that Karasick will not only keep Mondt from pinning his athletes to the mat twice in the given time, but that he will pin Mondt to the mat at least twice. Karasick has defeated the best men of his weight and has even defeated men heavier than himself.

Karasick will put the finishing touches on his training tomorrow evening. Mondt is going through his training stunts at San Francisco.

Khourmian is offering a couple of other events. Joe Marshall is billed for a half hour match with Tam Tallas, the Greek champion, and Jack Boyle and Douglas Park will put on a mixture of wrestling and boxing. The first event will start at 8:30 p. m.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 1922.

OAKLAND'S DAY.

To the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to their Imperial Potentate, and to the members of his Divan, to all who have come to the San Francisco Bay Region to make merry and rejoice at the most extensive celebration held by one of the world's greatest brotherhoods, do the people of the City of Oakland extend a hearty welcome.

Tomorrow is Oakland Day. Nobles of the Shrine are coming across San Francisco Bay in their thousands to march in dense, gaily-colored phalanx through Oakland's business district, to drive through her parks and along the boulevards skirting her magnificent lake, and to look down from the majestic heights of her eternal hills and mountains upon the sparkling waters of the bay.

Ever since the first special train arrived, carrying its complement of Shrine delegates, have the citizens of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda vied with the hosts of the Shriners in San Francisco in preparing the warmest, most California-like welcome to the members of the Shrine.

The people of the Eastbay are fully aware that the Shrine convention is an event which means as much to them as it does to the citizens of the sister city across the bay. They know full well that one of the most sought-for and desirable of all conventions is that of the Mystic Shrine. They have seen the keenest rivalry of the principal cities of the United States manifested in efforts to secure the honor of being the host during the sessions of the Imperial Council. And they deem it an invaluable honor that the greatest of all Shrine sessions is now being held on the shores of San Francisco Bay.

The people of Oakland know the Shrine from their intimate, close contact with Aahmes Temple, one of the city's finest, most charitable and influential institutions.

And it is through Aahmes Temple that the true character of Eastbay hospitality and friendship is expressing itself. Aahmes Temple is the host tomorrow and the members of Aahmes Temple, their illustrious Potentate, and his Divan will in all things speak and act in behalf of Oakland.

The people of Oakland and the other Eastbay communities know many things about the Mystic Shrine. They know of the Shrine's rigid adherence to American principles, of its constant advocacy of the right, of its strong sword-arm in combatting evil. Above all do they know the Shrine's warm heart for all suffering, and its tender protection of the weak.

The Shrine does not believe in advertising its deeds of humanitarian kindness. Yet its charities are on too large a scale to go undetected, and so it is that the people of these cities have found out many things. And one of the things they have discovered regarding this warm-hearted, fun-loving, generous, truly Christian brotherhood, is the Shrine's deep love for the children of the race, irrespective of creed or sect.

The people of Oakland know that Shriners practice what they preach. And in the Shrine Hospitals for Crippled Children, now springing up throughout the land, they see still further testimony that the Shriners are true followers of Him who said:

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

To the institution of the Mystic Shrine a welcome!

A NEW INDUSTRY.

While the method has been used to some extent in California for a number of years, bulk handling of the grain crop, in the broad aspect, is a new thing. Within a year it has developed from a proved experiment to a real ity and in that development have been written market history and changes in the industrial map.

Oakland becomes the storage place, the warehouse of the state. To this city moves the bulk grain long enough to be poured into the giant elevators and out, once more, into freight trains and cargo vessels.

Under this plan, which is in reality a system of graduated bins or warehouses starting with those erected on the farms and continuing through the sectional warehouse and then to the elevator here, the initial expense is greater, but one to be overcome by a considerable annual saving. It means the farmer whose acres are on the railroad can turn his crop from his bins into the freight cars and may hear with indifference the news that the price of sacks has gone up.

The bulkheads provided in modern freight steamers to prevent shifting of cargoes have removed the last objection to the bulk handling of grain by water. Oakland has become the center of a business the magnitude of which is not generally recognized.

GRADUATION WEEK.

In the fifty-one grammar and high schools of Oakland there is present this week the fuss and bustle of serious preparation. For each of the thousands of students who will step up to his principal to receive the certificate or diploma a red letter day is being written.

A man must be old, indeed, and overwhelmed with statistics or woes who has forgotten the day he was graduated from high school. The President of the United States remembers well the ceremonies during which he was declared a full-fledged graduate and he remembers how he shined his shoes and the kind of necktie he wore. A famous artist has said that he regards as the greatest controversy in history the one waged in his high school in the weeks before commencement. The male members of the senior class were divided on the questions of white vests or black, the turn-down or the upright collar.

To many, commencement brings back a picture of a girl in a white gown, of a speech—quite the greatest speech ever delivered—in which the problems of the world were attacked with assurance and vigor and the paths of the future were emblazoned with youthful and confident guide-marks.

Today the man of the older generation hears again of class-day, the class dance, prophecies, histories, dinners, and picnics and, if he is father of one of these graduates he hears of the proper necktie, the dress and the ribbons. There is a magnificent seriousness about the whole business of stepping out of the high school. It is something to bring back the pictures and the hopes of those whose young days are gone.

To the graduates of the Oakland schools this week the city extends its loving congratulations. The future belongs to brave hearts and young aspiration. These boys and girls have within them that which can make them wealthy, famous, and useful. They are about to make a choice and they are not asking too much when they look to the older boys and girls for example and counsel.

THE EASTERN HEAT WAVE.

Already the withering heat wave is moving across the East and Middle West. Men and women are being overcome and the list of the fatalities, a month ahead, has made its appearance.

Those who growl in California when a fog hides the sun and when wraps are necessary in the evening, should silence their complaint with new found praises for the climate that is here by the Bay. To Alameda county in the summer come, not only the visitors from the East and Middle West, but the men and women of the interior valleys. We are summer and winter resort in one, a choice spot of no extremes.

Aside from our own claims to peculiar advantages in summer, the whole state, even in its hottest valleys, emerges from the season without a record of prostrations. The heat of the interior California does not shrivel and it does not wilt. It produces the wealth of the Sacramento and the San Joaquin, it ripens the fruit and makes the hay. When the farmers there find it a bit trying they pack the family into the automobile and steer toward Oakland.

A HIGHWAY CELEBRATION.

Cause for local pride will be mixed with patriotic utterance in Hanford's celebration of July Fourth. A knowledge that the community is placed more definitely on the tourist map of the nation, that its produce and its citizens may travel with greater ease, will give added joy to the day.

In the "Sierra-to-the-Sea" highway, one link is that from Hanford through Lemoore and to Coalinga. In commemoration of the opening of this link Hanford, Kings county, and its neighbors will celebrate. The city will vote itself a reception committee to the visitors it expects, an old-fashioned program has been arranged and thousands will attend.

It is no mean feat to finish a highway, and Hanford is out to let the world know that the job is done.

DAILY ALMANAC

Tuesday, June 13.

Lewis and Clark discovered the Great Falls of the Missouri in 1805.
... The War-Revenue Act was passed in 1893. ... Agricola was born in 40. ... Quite some time ago, Madame D'Arbly, in 1752. ... The city is full of Shriners and hospitality and fezzes and flags. ... And smiles, did you ever see too many? ... There is music on all of the breezes.

The Dolorous Fate of the Knickered Maid.
(The Mayor and Council of Traverse City, Mich., have issued warning that any woman wearing knickers on the streets will be arrested.)

The scene is the mayor's office.
MAYOR—
I am the mayor of Traverse City. My cops, they join this earnest ditty.

COPS (file in, strike pose and sing gruff-like):
We roam the streets,
We search the field;
We walk our beats,
Our eyes are pealed.

ORCHESTRA ("Bump, tiddy-bump, bump, bump!")

MAYOR—
And just let any city slicker,
Doff her skirts for a wicked knicker,
To jail she goes, and lock it tight,
We'll spare the town so rough a night.
("Bump, tiddy-bump, bump, bump!")

COPS (valorously and a bit sycophantish):
Before you could cough, or sneeze, or snicker,
Quick as a flash, or a darn site quicker,
The careless queen in the kiltless knicker
Will La-han-guish ther-hair in ja-hale!

MAYOR (in center of group; Cops strain near for proper barber-shop effect):
Yes, the careless queen in the kiltless knicker.

COPS—
The dame who dared defy our mayor!

MAYOR—
In prison cell we now will stick her.

ALL—
And let her ter-ray her wamp-ing there.
(Bump, tiddy-bump, bump, bump.)

MAID (sorrowfully. The music to this number is really irresistible):
List to a maiden, sore beset,
What have I done, sirs, where is my sin?
Must I be punished, must I regret?
Where does the well-known justice come in?
Tell me, before you cast me in jail,
List while the heart of a suppliant begs—
Is it a crime, sirs; often did I fail—
Is it so bad for a girl to have legs?

MAYOR—
To jail with the brazen buzzy!

COPS—
Ay, ay, sir. (They take her away.)

MAYOR (in hoarse whisper):
She not only has legs, but she admits it!
(Bump, tiddy bump, bump, bump.)

You know him. There is one in every town. He is the burly and arrogant fellow who carries with him an overpowering sense of his own importance. And his wife? She is a gentle, admiring soul, content to sit by while he brags and to smile approval. Of this wife the man is fond of saying—and he is never to know how great a lie it is—"My wife is my severest critic."

"The kind of a man I want," the most temperamental of the office girls admitted with dramatics to an inspired circle of her fellows, "is a cave-man, the kind who, when I order a strawberry ice cream soda, will say, 'You take vanilla,' and make you take it."

Sir: Mrs. Jump and Mrs. Ketcham belong to the same club in Fruitvale.—M.

The shades of night were falling fast,
A dizzy blonde was walking past;
The moon upon her tresses fell,
It looked like straw. I heard a yell,
"Excelsior!"

Perils of Lightly Bounding.
(Marysville Appeal.)

Jesse Sublett, the real estate dealer, is carrying an arm in a sling as a result of two breaks he sustained a few nights ago when he attempted to lightly bound over a gate on his uncle's farm near Anderson.

High Life and High Creek.
(Ozark Spectator.)

The dance at Mr. Sit's Friday night wasn't much on account of the creek being up so high.

Dogs, Attention!
(From Lemars, Ia., Globe-Post.)
All dogs that have not been licensed for the year 1922, be sure and go to your banker or some notary public and have them made out, as they have the supplies and will be glad to get this fixed up, and save you the penalty, which will be $1.75. We will publish a list of the delinquent dogs.—F. W. Stamp, county auditor.

OAKLAND GREET'S YOU—GLAD TO MEET YOU.

NOTES and COMMENT

Christian Science Monitor on the petroleum supply: "That the limit of the world's oil supply is not so nearly reached as to justify uneasiness among consumers, or efforts of producers to instill fear in the public mind for the purpose of pushing up prices, has about its illustration in a novel incident in the State of Washington. A circus visited the town of Cedro Woolley, and one of its big elephants escaped. In its few hours of liberty the huge pachyderm tramped through a nearby swamp. Wherever the big truant stepped in the marshy soil he left deep holes a foot or so across. The next morning, boys following the trail of the animal, found some of the holes filled with oil seepage. Sticks dipped in it burned freely."

The Medford Mail-Tribune advises Henry: "Henry Ford will run for President if the people of the country desire him to do so." Who are the people of the country? How is their desire to be determined previous to the convention except by the primary? Jump in, Henry! The water is fine. Don't play the coy politician. Don't do the stereotypical thing and yield only to popular demand—the great voice of the door knocker calling you as they did when you sailed for the trenches. Be original. Be refreshingly simple. Be yourself. Tell the world you would like to be President, that if enough of the people vote for you, you will be, and without any political buncombe, go to it."

The New York Post discusses the Colonel House: "From so unpopulated a quarter, Colonel House stands out as the majority of much like a defense of secret diplomacy. Before sailing for Europe early this week, Colonel House refused to comment on our foreign policy on the ground that people cannot criticize intelligently when they cannot see all the cards that are on the table. . . . when you don't know what is taking place behind the scenes." The two statements do not hang together. If all the cards are on the table there is obviously nothing going on behind the scenes."

New York Herald: "The marine news of the San Francisco papers recently reported in a brief paragraph the departure of the ship Herman, Captain C. T. Pedersen, from that port for the Arctic regions. The Herman, it may be remembered, in 1914 went under the same master in search of Stefansson and his exploring vessel, the Karluk, and in 1920 she was the rescue ship of Captain Roald Amundsen and his crew after their shipwreck on the north Siberian coast. The stanch old vessel has yet another distinction, in that she is the last remnant of the fleet of sailing ships which more than a half century ago left San Francisco yearly for the north Pacific whaling waters."

According to the Christian Science Monitor, Paris is emulating the American plan. "The ambition that has hit off a high American city after another to increase its census rating and attach the word 'Greater' to its name by annexing surrounding suburbs has arrived in Paris. An agitation has been started in the City Council to extend the French capital's boundaries and raise its population from 2,900,000 to 4,500,000 by taking in contiguous towns, or to 6,000,000 by absorbing places farther afield."

Commencement item from the Medford Mail-Tribune: "The high school graduating class of '22 is planning on the brink of the future, with their hair slicked back till their eyebrows gleam like triangles, and every tuck and ruffle in the starch and snow white. Tomorrow night they kiss Alma Mater so long, and with fists clenched enter the battle for Pancakes."

SPIRIT OF STATE PRESS

"What is the minimum acreage from which I can make a comfortable living?" is the question asked in California by the majority of prospective farm settlers. And upon the answer depends the future of our rural districts, for unless we have a population of satisfied farmers we cannot progress agriculturally. California's fertile acres will support a million and more farmers. It is the multiplicity of small farms that insures agricultural success and prosperity.—Sacramento Union.

about YOUR HEALTH

How Hookworm Disease Can Be Avoided or Remedied

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

An Alabama lady writes me saying she has been told pinworm and hookworm are practically one and the same thing. She has been misinformed. Both belong to the order of parasitic worms which live in the intestines of other animals, including man. All such worms have sucking mouths, and some of them, including the hookworm, have teeth or hooks, permitting them to bite into their victim, and in this way secure a firm hold upon him.

The pinworm and the large intestinal worm, called the ascariis lumbricoides, are much alike except in size. The former is also called the threadworm of the mawworm. It is a thin, white worm, half an inch or less in length.

The pinworm is found in the lowest part of the intestines, usually in the rectum. It causes irritation and intolerable itching. On this account there may be loss of sleep, and, in consequence, impairment of the health.

The hookworm is a different beast and more to be dreaded, because of the effects it produces. There are two forms of hookworm, the European variety and the American. The worm is one-half an inch, more or less, in length. Its eggs are tiny things, and one human being may shelter millions of them! The eggs pass from the body, and after they leave it the larvae may continue alive for months. They thrive in the mud and the slime, and are watchful for opportunity to find a suitable host.

The way the human being is attacked is this:

He walks barefoot through the infested mud or water. The larvae attach themselves to the skin, causing irritation and itching. Scratching breaks the skin, and in so go the larvae to find their way through the blood to the intestine.

They prefer the lower bowel, and in the last five or six feet of the intestine they may be found a thousand or more of these worms. They attach themselves to the wall of the bowel, and, like leeches, suck the blood.

The effects produced by these worms cause the hookworm disease. It is prevalent in various foreign countries, and particularly in the southern portion of the United States.

You know enough from this description to anticipate the symptoms. The loss of blood taken by these hundreds of worms is just as bad as if a blood-vessel were cut and the blood poured out. It is worse than one such experience, because the worms digest their meal and make repeated attacks to get more blood.

There are anaemia, loss of energy, constant fatigue, and in children failure to develop. In sections of the South there are many people who used to be called lazy. There can be no doubt that many of these have been victims of the hookworm.

Stomachache, loss of appetite and perversion of appetite are other symptoms. Instead of eating food, some of the patients bring up dirt, paper, starch, chalk and other indigestible things. They become dirt eaters.

Splendid results have followed systematic campaigns for the eradication of hookworm disease. It has been one of the great public health problems in certain communities and systematic education has been necessary to get rid of it.

The first thing to do to wipe out the contamination of the disease is to demand the universal use of outhouses or flushing toilets. If human excrement is deposited upon the ground the millions of eggs found in it may develop other millions of hookworm larvae. These are picked up by the bare feet or carried into the drinking water.

Unless the larvae reach the water they are harmless. Where the dirt is found, shoes and stockings must be worn to insure safety from infection. Otherwise there develops an itch and an eruption between the toes, and the conditions develop which favor infection. Miners and gardeners must guard their hands, too.

Keeping the hands clean and boiling and drinking water are other necessary measures to keep the live larvae from the mouth and digestive organs.

Thymol is the great remedy. It is practically a specific for this disease. The treatment, covering a day's time, is repeated once a week until recovery is complete. The family doctor will conduct it. With improved social conditions and strict attention to sanitation hookworm disease will disappear from the earth.

OLIPHANT TELLS OF JURY SYSTEM

"Today the jury is still a protection to our liberties and our freedom," declared David D. Oliphant Jr., jury commissioner for Alameda county, speaking before the members of Oakland Post No. 5, American Legion, yesterday, at their luncheon meeting.

Oliphant's topic was "The Efficiency of the Jury System." He traced the beginnings of the jury system.

The origin of the jury system is obscured by age. Every primitive people of Europe had an institution similar to the jury. In medieval times the system fell into disuse except in England, where it had a remarkable growth, and was later brought over to America.

The English people revered the jury as a protection to their liberties and their freedom. When the constitution of the United States was before the Virginia legislature for ratification Patrick Henry violently opposed it because it did not expressly protect the right to trial by jury. Subsequently such a provision was added to the Federal constitution.

"Today the jury is still a protection to our liberties and our freedom, although it is often criticized. Should prosecuting attorneys attempt to make an unjust use of a criminal statute the right to trial by jury would be the greatest protection of the oppressed citizen in governmental affairs. In a democracy any institution which brings the citizen into direct participation with governmental affairs should be cherished and protected. I believe in reverence for those things which have advanced the cause of human liberty in the past, and believe that they can serve the same purpose in the future if intelligently administered."

Army Engineer Head To Inspect Harbor

At the invitation of the Oakland city officials, Major L. H. Beach, chief of the Army Engineer Corps, will visit the city Thursday and inspect Oakland harbor.

Accompanied by Colonel Herbert Deakne and other officers of the engineering corps, General Beach in the morning will be guest of the harbor development committee of the chamber of commerce at the Hotel Oakland at luncheon. The party then will inspect Oakland harbor, accompanied by Commissioner Carter, Harbor Engineer Beebe and other city officials.

General Beach will be shown the program of the city for harbor development, and it is believed that the trip will have great influence upon his decision concerning the proposed Key Route terminal at Goat Island.

Without eye comfort for whole being is usually "out of whack." And it's an easy matter to have comfortable eyes.

Brunswick-Stratford Model

DESIGNED BY DAVID ZORK

Here is shown the most chastely beautiful model of a phonograph yet created and one that has met the highest approval and the instant acceptance of every critic of period art and furnishings.

So distinctly individual is its beauty that it becomes a thing apart in the home furnishing, yet it blends perfectly with the assembly of beautiful mahogany.

Being Brunswick, the Stratford will, of course, delight in the beauty and splendid volume of its tone, for it is tone really that has made the Brunswick the most desired of all phonographs. Then, too, it plays at their best all records, no matter what artist or manufacturer. Price, $310; electric, $360.

BAY BRIDGE ACTION DUE THIS WEEK

Recommendation of Board Inquiring Into Goat Island Project to Decide Fate of Plan; No Objection Made

Upon the results of an investigation to be made this week will depend the recommendation to the War Department as to the advisability of granting permission to the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway to build a bridge or embankment from the present mole to the shoals north of Goat Island.

Indications that this permission will be recommended is seen in the fact that no objections were voiced at yesterday's meeting of the representatives of the Army, Navy and Commerce departments with citizens of the Bay cities. The sole topic at issue appeared to be that of the embankment and whether it would interfere with the tidal flow.

PLAN IS FAVORABLE

The railway company has expressed its desire to build such a structure for its rails if it is held to be practical, but also presented plans for a trestle and a bridge.

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations are on record as favoring the Goat Island Terminal plan. When navigators were called upon to express objections no one responded, and no complaint of any kind was registered. Richmond was represented at the meeting by City Attorney D. J. Hall who was mainly concerned with the plan move the Santa Fe terminal from his city.

S. F. MAN TALKS

Superior Richard J. Welch of San Francisco, who is also head of the "Bridge the Bay" organization, told the conference that the San Francisco supervisors had taken no action on the question, and were waiting developments. His speech was as near to an objection as any delivered.

General Lansing H. Beach, chief engineer of the United States Army and head of the delegation here, will make a study of harbor conditions and will have his report ready within a few days.

The War Department approval of his report, regarded as a formality, will, if the recommendations are favorable, give the initial impulse to construction proposal of huge proportions and mean the expenditure of millions of dollars. It will also mean, in the future, the establishment in the Eastbay of a large system of railroad yards and warehouses to back up the new union terminal.

Big Yolo County Ranch Divided

WOODLAND, June 13.—Henry Kleinsorge of Sacramento, president of the Earl Fruit company, has purchased the east half of the Spencer ranch of 3200 acres, located fifteen miles above Knights Landing for $200,000. It is the largest ranch in the Sutter Basin, outside of the Armour holdings. A. T. Spencer will farm the portion of the ranch unsold. On the tract just purchased by Kleinsorge 45,000 sacks of barley were harvested this year. He will continue to farm the immense tract. It is the biggest realty deal of the year in the Sacramento valley.

Oakland "Goes After" Educators' Convention

Oakland will endeavor to secure the 1923 convention of the National Education Association, Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter, a high officer of the association, was authorized last night by the Board of Education to take the city's invitation to the coming association convention at Boston, which he will attend.

Hunter says he will "go after" the convention strongly. He is a past president of the National Education Association.

The meeting of the Board of Education last night developed several discussions, some acrimonious, concerning Deputy Superintendent Lloyd Barzee's automobile, the transfer of a student to Oakland High school, and granting permission to Lockwood and Pittsburg parents to hold dances at Lockwood school. Also, San Leandro will probably get its junior high school.

The board also adopted resolutions of regret over the death of Public Administrator John A. Hill.

BARZEE BILL NOT PAID

The session began with a discussion of the Barzee case, having a clause in his contract providing upkeep for his automobile. The bill has been held up from month to month till it now totals $238. A motion to allow the bill was ruled out of order by Chairman Harry Boyle, who said it was not approved by the finance committee except for a minority report by Director J. P. Chandler. Director Short argued that a contract must be observed at all costs.

H. S. DIRECTORS ARE HONORED

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Technical High school of Oakland closed an active year's work yesterday. An all fresco luncheon in Moswood park, bringing the retiring and incoming boards of directors and P. M. Fisher, principal of the school, preceded the session.

Mrs. Herbert Spencer, "mother" president of Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, offered the address of appreciation for Mrs. Herman Walker, who was the president of the school for the year.

O. P. Cole presented a handsomely framed photograph to Principal Fisher.

HUNTER TAKES EXCEPTION

In the case of a boy whose mother wants him transferred from Technical to Oakland High school, the board held a discussion, ending with a suggestion that the board allow the claim. Hunter suggested that it be referred to the superintendent's office. This brought a denunciation from the board that such requests should be granted whenever possible. Hunter took exception, on the ground that such matters belong to the administrative department and not to the board as a whole.

"Do you choose to take the executive authority away from the school superintendent?" he asked. "If so, this board will have to make all the other assignments, and I will ask the board to carry that burden."

NEWBERRY DENIES NAVY YARD PLOT

Michigan Senator Replies to Charges of King; Mare Island Fund Cut in Interest of Economy, Claim

By J. BART CAMPBELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Senator Newberry, Republican, of Michigan, struck back at Senator King, Democrat of Utah, with an emphatic denial that there is a conspiracy to wreck and destroy the Mare Island, California, navy yard and substitute a naval base at Alameda, in San Francisco bay.

It was solely in the interest of economy that the allotment for dredging and dredging at Mare Island was cut from $750,000 to $250,000 in the navy appropriations bill, Senator Newberry explained.

"The Alameda project did not enter into the matter at all," he said. "We decided to drop that project for the same reason we agreed to economize at Mare Island—to save as much money as possible. As long as we are going to get along with a smaller navy there can be no necessity for spending money on a new base, or for that matter, on a navy yard where it is not urgently needed."

Should a Woman Tell?

Hawthorne Emery decides to marry Dane Merrill without telling him that she has once been in love with another man. She discovers later that he is very narrow in his ideas about women, and then she learns that Julie, Dane's little butterfly sister, is in love with the same man. Hawthorne sees Cranford Blake, or Carroll Blake, as he calls himself, and he threatens to show her girl's letters to Dane if she interferes. Hawthorne does not know what to do, and finally in desperation, she suggests to Dane that she take Julie away. When the matter is put up to her, however, Julie rebels and threatens to run away with Blake. It is then that Hawthorne tells the girl the truth, which Julie at first refuses to believe. She breaks down finally, however, although Hawthorne cannot discover whether her feelings have changed or not.

CHAPTER XLII.

Doubts and Fears.

BEFORE I left Julie she had asked me not to tell Dane what I had told her. I hesitated before I replied. "Why?" I asked finally. "Because I want time to think. I must see Carroll, and I warn you, Hawthorne, that if you do tell Dane, and he interferes with me, I'll run away." "Are you going to tell Cranford Blake that I told you the truth?" I asked. "I still refused to call him by the name under which he was masquerading. "I don't know. I don't know what I am going to do," she returned. And I was forced to be content with that. At present Julie seemed capable of being a woman, but would she remain calm and contained when she saw the man she loved? Would it be possible for Cranford to persuade her to believe anything he told her, even when it came to a question of breaking her word to me? Suppose he asked her to run away from home? Suppose he held her in his arms and kissed her and told her that he loved her? Would she be strong enough to hold out against him? I doubted it. Julie was very young and very much in love, and Cranford had all the wiles that enabled him to have his way with women.

I was taking a fearful chance by keeping silent, and yet I felt that if Dane stumbled into the affair, he would drive Julie to use desperate means. I felt that Julie understood her brother, and understood my reasons for not wanting him to know the truth about me, even though I had said nothing. Dane would not go at the thing subtly, he would simply assert his authority and treat Julie like a child, and then I was sure that the very worst would happen, for Julie would never submit to such treatment. On the other hand, if Julie decided to tell Cranford the truth, and I had little doubt that a meeting between them would finally result in that, what would he do? If Cranford came to Dane and gave him my love letters before I had had a chance to see Dane and, to tell him myself, my own case would be ruined. There was a probability that Dane would forgive me if I told him myself, if with arms around his neck I confessed everything, but if Cranford decided to interfere and went to Dane before I had a chance to say anything, there was no telling what would happen. Of course, the worst that could happen would be that he might even threaten Dane with publicity, it might mean blackmail, for in the hands of a man like Cranford the entire affair could be made to look very different for me.

When I reached the warmth and brightness of my own apartment, so different from the gloomy atmosphere of the Merrill place, my thoughts were in a muddle, but I hastily changed from my street things into something lighter. I realized that some of my agony of mind had lifted. The suspense was not so terrible as it had been. I had told Julie, and I had left her less of a child and more of a woman. I felt that if only I could tell Dane the truth, now, tonight, things might be brighter for me even.

But even then if I had but known it, the clouds were darkening and fate was getting ready to strike the first blow of all. Of course, I had no inkling of this when I heard Dane's key in the lock and, as was my custom, rushed to meet him with a smile on my lips and my face lifted eagerly to meet his kiss and the look in his eyes that he kept only for me.

On Monday morning— Mosley would come down to his— Place of business. For the next hour or two— He kept his clerks busy— Picking out luxurious resorts—

With plenty of soft chairs— Where he would go on his next week-end— Which usually started on Tuesday— And if the chairs were soft— It lasted until the following Sunday.

Then back to business— Then a search for another resort— For his next week-end. Last week Mosley and his clerks— Settled on a new resort— Within convenient motoring distance.

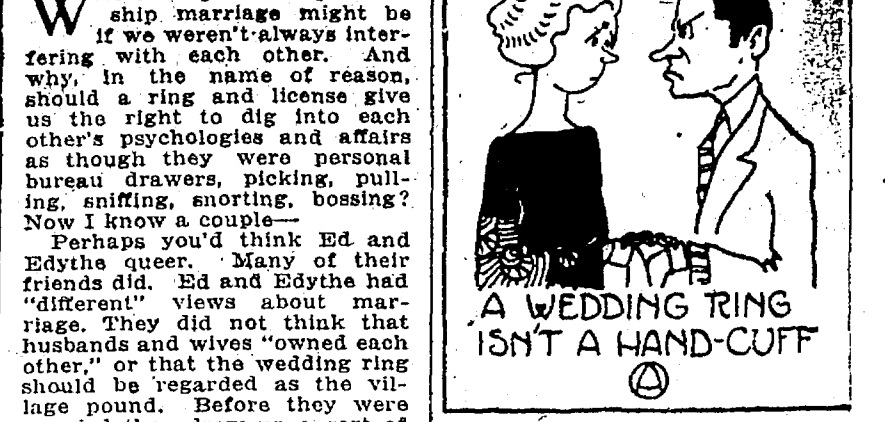

Mosley got away— From his well-wishing clerks— Quite early on Tuesday. Bowing gaily along the highway— Enjoying the soft feeling of the cushions— Mosley suddenly was awakened— From his well-cushioned dream—

By a sudden bump— And Mosley's three hundred pounds of Uselessness— Landed some forty feet away from the starting place—

And the natives still point—with pride— To the dent that Mosley made in the soft ground— When he landed that day on his— W-E-A-K E-N-D.

They feel that if a faction and willful co-operation won't make a success of marriage, nagging is useless. And they're proving their point. So there you are! What do you think of it?

(Copyright, 1922.)

Most criminals have the brains of a twelve-year-old child; some are even younger. Yet would we put a twelve-year-old boy in jail for twenty years? Rather wouldn't we try to train and teach him and instill a sense of right and wrong into his brain?

When asking these questions because Oswald made the statement that we should do away with jails, that they were a blot on our civilization. He said that jails were a result of OUR neglect and carelessness.

In response to the following: "My dear Jerry: "Oswald and his jailbirds! Well, Jerry, since you invite our audience, here goes my reply. Let me add, I shall be very much interested in the course of the rest of the gang. A jail is an evidence of a lack of charity of those on the outside," so says Oswald. What lingo, pardon my audacity. Well, Jerry, I'll just write a bit, but I said, I'll be interested in what the rest of the folks have to say.

"A jail is a 'lack of charity.' Gracious, 'tis a lack of charity, a charitable institution in certain sense, than the contrary. I'll even go so far as to say that the jail is a very fortunate institution to have in existence. Not only can it imprison the criminal, but it can also, if not gaily, 'tis a protection to society.

"The mass must be taken more into consideration than the individual, although in the last instance, and in some cases, the trend is to help the individual as much as possible.

"Gracious, the majority of jailbirds are degenerates, a curse to society, but in some instances the best there is in man has been developed within prison walls. O. Henry, our best short story writer, was a jailbird. In fact, most of his stories were written while in confinement. Another case was that of an Eastern prison warden (name forgotten) who had the same fate as O. Henry. There are many other instances, the case possibly a bit altered.

"I sure don't blame Oswald, to a certain extent, for condemning our jails and their systems, but there are a great many things that are being learned, and are being installed, trades can be learned, all with a view to bringing a man back. There are some specimens of humanity that are beyond trust. It is not the fault altogether of the system, 'tis the individual. And if he is not strong enough to pull himself upward, nor cares to, whose fault is it? Surely not the jail for those in the ground. At least not altogether. Well, I presume I had better admit, for the sake of argument, that there are injustices, red tape, graft, etc., connected both with the jailward and jury trials, in general. You bet there are, but that's too long a tale. I'll finish up a bit short and snappy and give the other fellow a chance.

"In closing, let me ask a few questions. "How about our train robberies, our mail robberies. Is it right to allow the offenders full citizen? Haven't we, law-abiding citizens, a right to protection against them? Is it right to murder and get away with it? How about that hard earned money that we put in a bank, only to have stolen by some lout, but spend that mazzana to suit his own fancy without compensation on his part? Goodnight, it's a fine mess to go a visiting and return home, and the furniture carted off.

"Sure, one can't hang an expensive coat in the closet, judging by some instances, without having an intruder dig through the coat to regions unknown. Say fine, great! What a wonder of a world this would be without jails. Say, good-night, Peter, would it be a kindly act, golly, a CHURCH, to go to allow them to go unpunished?

"Would any parent want his girl exposed to that outrage without some protection? Heaven forbid! It surely appears to me, as I've pointed to a great many others, that jails are pretty good propositions to safeguard the public.

"Now Jerry, just a wee bit more. I'm starr'd. Do I agree with Oswald that there are some morals running around loose that ought to be caught? For instance, the Profiteer with a capital 'P.' Say, he sure has nothing on the high-life robber. He hangs about most anywhere. But thank goodness, a Place on a buttered broiler, rub the meat over the broiler with a cut bud of garlic, and turn in a tumbler of water. Pare and slice six potatoes, and have ready in a pan a quarter-pound of melted butter, slip in the potatoes, and fry them a delicate brown, then set to drain. HOW TO KEEP YOUR HAIR IN CURL EVEN IN THE WARMEST WEATHER.

To the curly-haired girl summer weather is always a trial. The least moisture in the atmosphere or the increased flow of perspiration instead of making her hair straggly merely increases the rippling curls which nestle about her neck or curl prettily about her forehead.

Her sister with straight locks feels disgusted with the effect of dampness on her hair. Of course if her hair were truly and naturally glossy, her appearance is not so greatly marred. But if it is thin and she is accustomed to having it waved, it looks badly when the moisture robs it of its waves.

There are, however, various methods of curling the hair artificially which are really quite satisfactory unless unusual weather or travel conditions are encountered.

One very good method for achieving a so-called permanent artificial wave is to rub a little scented vaseline upon the hair. This can easily be applied if you divide your hair into small sections. Then take a soft rag which you have dipped in the vaseline and draw it down from the roots of your hair to the ends.

Leave this on for a few minutes until your hair is thoroughly saturated with the vaseline and then wipe it off with a soft rag. A piece of old linen is best suited to this purpose. The next step in the process of waving your hair is to apply the waving irons. Good judgment should be used in regard to this. If you have your irons too hot they will make your hair brittle and the ends will break off.

On the other hand, if the irons are too cold the effect of the waving will hardly be noticeable. Of course if you are the habit of waving your hair you will easily know when the right temperature is reached. You will find when you treat your hair as directed that it will retain its waves for a considerable time in spite of wind and dampness.

Another method of obtaining a curl is to moisten your hair with scented hair-rinsing lotion, then apply the waving irons, or if you prefer you may put your hair up in curlers.

Mix two ounces of borax and one dram of gum arabic in one quart of boiling water. Strain until all particles are fully dissolved and then add three tablespoonfuls of spirits of camphor. Moisten your hair with this mixture before you wave it, and you will find that it will benefit greatly by sun and air baths. Summer is the season particularly adapted to such treatments. Of course it is not wise to expose your hair unduly to the strong rays of the sun if you have been accustomed to spend most of your time indoors.

A good plan is to seat yourself under the shade of a leafy tree and then remove all your hairpins and let your hair fall free. Shake it well so that the underside of your tresses will also be aired thoroughly.

An Old Planting Machine

CHAPTER 74. In the olden land of Sumer, between the two great rivers—the Euphrates and the Tigris—people became "civilized" many thousands of years ago. In later chapters we shall call this region the "Land of Two Rivers."

In Sumer, as in Egypt, the question of water for crops was grain, the machine pictured was invented.

Farmers would call it a "seeder," for it was used to put seeds in the ground. Notice the sharp point of this machine. This point made a small trench in the soil as the seeder was dragged along by the two oxen.

There are three men shown in the drawing. The one at the side of the oxen seems to be urging the animals forward. The man at the back holds the handles of the machine, which he is guiding. The middle man is doing the most interesting thing of all—he is putting seed in a funnel.

Sliding from the funnel, the seed goes down through the tube underneath, and finally lands in the trench made by the point of the planting machine.

Large crops of barley and wheat were raised. To have work in planting the important. The rains were not heavy enough. Water had to be taken from rivers. It was hard to get from the Tigris because the banks were very high, but large amounts were taken from the other great river. Dikes were built so that when the snow melted in the spring, and rivers became bigger, they would not overflow where groups of mud-brick houses stood.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

by IRVIN S. COBB

By Way of Compromise

Up in Minnesota a railroad train killed a cow belonging to a Scandinavian homesteader. The tragedy having been reported at headquarters a claim agent for the road was sent to the spot to make a settlement of damages with the owner of the slaughtered animal.

Now the claim agent was a plausible and persuasive person, else he would not have been a claim agent. Having sought out the Scandinavian and introduced himself by his official title, he proceeded to make out as strong a case in rebuttal as was possible under the circumstances, with the hope, of course, of inducing the injured party to accept as moderate a sum as possible.

"Mr. Swanson," he said with a winning smile, "the company wants to be absolutely fair with you in this matter. We deeply regret that your cow should have met her death on our tracks. But, on the other hand, Mr. Swanson, from our side there are certain things to be considered: In the first place, that cow had no business straying on our right-of-way, and you, as her owner, should not have permitted her to do so. Moreover, it is possible that her presence there might have caused a derailment of the locomotive which struck her and a serious wreck, perhaps involving loss of human life. Now, such being the case, and it being conceded that the cow was, in effect, a trespasser on our property, what do you think, as man to man, would be a fair basis of settlement as between you and the railroad company?"

For a space Mr. Swanson pondered on the argument of the claim agent. Then, speaking slowly and weighing his words, he delivered himself of an ultimatum:

"I bane poor Swede farmer," he said. "I shall give you two dollars."

Uncle Wiggily Stories

by HOWARD R. GARN

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PAINTED DUCK

"DEAR me!" exclaimed Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy in Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow one morning. "My goodness! I wonder what is going to happen?"

"Please don't tell me the Fuzzy Fox or the Weezie Wolf is coming along!" begged the bunny rabbit gentleman. "I'm not ready, even yet, to let them nibble my ears!"

"Oh, it isn't that!" laughed the muskrat lady housekeeper. "You are in no danger, but I am."

"How is that?" Uncle Wiggily asked.

"Because I think I am going crazy!" laughed Nurse Jane. "Here I have gone and baked two pans full of corn muffins and I should have made only ONE. Look!" She pointed to two large pans filled with crisp, brown, corn muffins, warm from the oven.

"How did it happen?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Not that it makes any difference," he made haste to add. "For the more corn muffins there are the better I like it."

"I think one pan full is quite enough," spoke Nurse Jane. "I can't imagine how it happened, that I made two."

"Well, I suppose you must have baked one batch of muffins and then you got thinking of something else and made up a second pan full, forgetting all about the first," said Uncle Wiggily.

"That's it!" laughed Nurse Jane. "And now that we have more than we need, I'll give you some to take to Uncle Butter, the goat."

"What will be fine?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily, and soon he was hopping on his way through the forest with a basket of corn muffins on his paw.

All of a sudden, as Uncle Wiggily was hopping past a little woodland pool of water he heard a quacking sound, and a voice said:

"I'm very sorry, my dears, but I can't give you anything to eat just now. The patient and I'll fly through the woods and see if I can find anything for you."

"Oh, but we're so hungry, Daddy!" cried some little voices. "This is too bad!" thought Uncle Wiggily, thinking of his basket of corn muffins. "I wonder who these creatures are?"

The bunny peered through the bushes and saw two large birds and some smaller birds. At least Uncle Wiggily thought they were birds, for one of them had a coat of the most beautiful feathers—green, red, purple, white and yellow, all mixed up on his back, head and wings, as though he had fallen into a paint box.

"Oh, what a pretty bird you are!" cried Uncle Wiggily, as he hopped out from behind a bush. "And as your little birds are hungry I will give them some corn muffins. There are more here than Uncle Butter will need."

"Thank you," said the creature with the beautiful and many-colored feathers. "It is very kind of you to feed my little ones, but, as it happens, I am not exactly a bird."

"What are you?" asked the bunny.

"I am a wood duck," was the answer, "and this is my wife. The Wood Duck pointed one webbed foot at his mate, who, though she had some colored feathers, was not as gay as was her husband."

"Well, if you aren't a bird, I shall call you the Painted Duck," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "For you look just like a wooden duck from a toy store, painted in all the colors of the rainbow."

"All right, call me the Painted Duck if you like," said the web-footed creature, with a quacking laugh. "And now, what about those corn muffins?"

Uncle Wiggily took some of the muffins from the basket, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Painted Duck, had all they wanted to eat. Then Mrs. Duck took the little ducks for a swim in the pond, and Mr. Painted Duck walked a little way through the forest with Uncle Wiggily.

The bunny was looking at the gay feathers of his new friend when, all of a sudden, out of the bushes jumped the Fuzzy Fox.

"Now for some ear nibbles!" barked the Fox. Uncle Wiggily stood still with fear, and the Painted Duck at his side did not move, at first. "Yes, now for some fine ear nibbles," barked the Fox.

"Here! You let Uncle Wiggily alone if you please!" suddenly quacked the Wood Duck, and with that he spread out his wings and flapped them.

The Fox gave a howl, tucked his tail between his hind legs and started to run away, crying as he went:

"Oh! Oh! Oh! I never saw anything like that! Uncle Wiggily has a wooden toy painted duck with him. But it comes to life and talks and flaps its wings. Oh, there must be a fairy inside and she'll pull out all my teeth if I stay! Oh, I'm going to run!"

And run the Fox did, not nibbling Uncle Wiggily's ears at all. "Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny. "I did right in calling you a painted duck, my friend, for you do look exactly like a toy, wooden, painted duck, with your many colors. And that's what the Fox thought you were until you quacked and flapped your wings. Oh, you scared him all right!"

"I'm glad I did!" quacked the Painted Duck. "I'm glad I saved your ears!" And the bunny was also glad.

RADIO INSTALLED AT CAMP CURRY AFTER 11 TRIALS

Week of Experimenting Required in Setting Up Aerials.

Camp Curry in the Yosemite Valley is now equipped with a radio receiving set and loud speaking device. The set was installed by the Western Radio Electric company of Oakland and is the first radio receiving set to be successfully operated under the shadows of Glacier Point.

The set was successfully installed after eleven trials had been made. It required a week of experimenting. It was found that for once direction meant everything in the installation of a receiving antenna. Radio sets have been successfully operated in the center of the valley away from the rock cliffs, but never until now has one operated successfully so near the rock walls that rear themselves thousands of feet above the floor of the valley.

Texas Sisters

Siamese Twins

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 12.—Leather-lunged spicers of the World's Greatest Combined Shows will never extend to the center of the midway the odd twinning of Daisy and Violet Hilton, upon whom has fallen the title of "Siamese Twins," following the death in Chicago of the world-famous Bluff sisters.

Daisy and Violet Hilton, 16 years old, will not commercialize their malformation, declare Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyer, foster parents of the sisters.

The twins are joined together at the base of the spinal column. This fusion, however, has not interfered with their enjoyment of the customary amusements of childhood and they daily can be seen playing around the lawn of the modest little home of their foster parents.

Each girl, declare doctors who have examined them, has a complete set of organs, functioning perfectly.

The twins, whose curious formation has attracted hundreds of medical scientists, can never be separated, according to the unanimous verdict of physicians and surgeons who have studied the fusion of their spine.

Allen Commands Troops in Rhineland

COBLENZ, June 12.—Major General Henry T. Allen, commanding the American forces in Germany, will retain supreme command here, in spite of the replacing of many American regiments by French organizations. The French general of the Fourth Brigade of Dragoons has put himself under General Allen's orders. The American command will continue, in spite of the decrease in the number of American troops billeted, to hold authority over the civilian population.

Season's Cantaloupe Yield Is Plentiful

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Cantaloupes will be plentiful in the United States this year, according to the Department of Agriculture. Reports to the department show the average of this luscious fruit in sixteen of the late-producing states to be 58,216 acres, as compared with 47,230 acres in 1921.

Colorado has the largest acreage with 16,000 acres; Arkansas, with 8,610 acres; California, with 7,850 acres; and Maryland, with 6,310 acres, are next in the order named.
